Peace Trek Over, Ike Heads Home

CASABLANCA, Morocco (AP)—President Eisenhower headed for home tonight, winding up the crusade for friendship and peace in freedom which he carried to 11 nations.

A thunderous acclaim by about 500,000 jubilant Moroccans and a generous send-off capped the President's history-making tour, the most extended foreign trip ever undertaken by an American president.

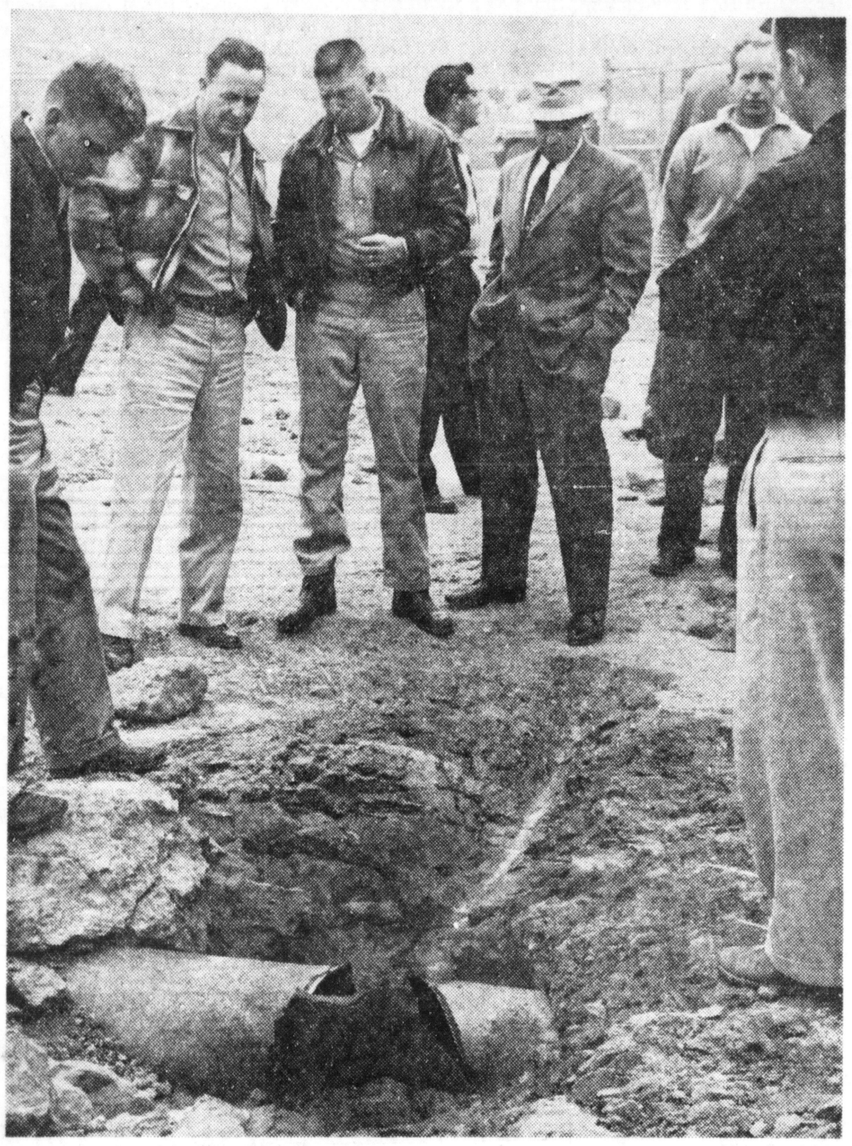

The 19-day journey, on which the President was cheered by perhaps nine million welcomers, encompassed visits to Italy, Turkey, Pakistan, Afghanistan, India, Iran, Greece, Tunisia, Spain and Morocco, as well as a Western summit meeting in Paris.

Morocco sent him off after probably the most colorful of all his welcomes in Asia, Africa and Europe. The royal palace estimated that 750,000 men and women lined the route he followed.

King Mohammed V joined him in a communique saying American troops will begin to depart from Morocco in the immediate future and will complete their withdrawal by 1963. The plans to give up the U. S. bases here had been announced previously.

The conclusion of the President's far-ranging venture in personal diplomacy still found him grinning and radiating confidence that he had managed to spread to millions a feeling of trust in the sincerity of American motives and policies. Only time will disclose the long-term effects. But there were many signs of at least a temporary boost to American prestige as a result of the tour.

The President's orange-nosed jetliner headed westward and was due at Andrews Air Force Base outside Washington at 11 p.m. EST, his point of departure Dec. 3.

GAS BREAK — A half million cubic feet of gas escaped through this hole in main Pacific Gas and Electric Co. line beside Ranchitos road after a bulldozer blade broke the pipe at 9:30 a.m. today and before PG&E crews could shut off the gas. The gas went up with a clap and roar that frightened Los Ranchitos and San Rafael Meadows residents, some of whom thought a jet plane had crashed. No one was injured and the escaping gas did not catch fire. (Independent-Journal photo)

San Rafael Eyes Freitas Parcel For Recreation

City To Negotiate For Site Next To Terra Linda School

San Rafael will negotiate with the Freitas family to see whether six to eight acres of flat land are available for a recreation center next to Terra Linda High School, and how much it would cost.

Mayor John F. McInnis last night appointed a committee composed of Councilmen Louis H. Baar and David Menary Jr. and himself to contact the Freitas family.

CRITICIZES CONSULTANT

The action followed almost two hours of debate at a San Rafael City Council session, with Councilmen Baar and Fred E. Jensen strongly opposed to purchasing a recreation site on the newly annexed Freitas ranch before other sites had been considered close to the already built-up part of the city.

Baar tore into Kenneth Anderson, planning consultant who was hired to work out a recreation program for the entire San Rafael area.

"Aren't we getting the cart before the horse?" Baar wanted to know. "We decided, instead of doing this piecemeal, to ask you to get an overall picture. Now we are digressing from San Rafael itself into a newly annexed area."

Jensen said the proposal smacks of politics.

HIS EXPLANATION

Mayor McInnis pointed out that he and City Manager Dan E. Andersen had urged the planning consultant to look into the Freitas ranch area for recreation purposes because the land there is still unimproved but will not remain that way for long.

Planning consultant Anderson gave this explanation of why he recommends immediate purchase of property between Terra Linda High School and

RAIN FORECAST (AGAIN) AS WINTER BEGINS

Old man winter arrived at 9:35 a.m. today, possibly bringing the best Christmas present possible for the parched lands of the Bay Area: RAIN.

The Weather Man predicts increasing cloudiness today with an 80 per cent chance of rain tonight and tomorrow. A large storm is moving in from the west.

Small craft warnings were posted along the California coast for winds increasing from 35 to 50 miles an hour tonight and tomorrow.

It was still mitten weather this morning in San Anselmo with a biting 38 and Novato at 40. Things were warmer in San Rafael at 44, Woodacre at 42 and Bolinas at 52.

Firm To Serve As Mill Valley City Engineer

The San Rafael engineering firm of Bala and Strandgaard has been appointed as Mill Valley's engineer, it was learned today.

Kesper C. Strandgaard of the firm said he had been advised of the appointment in a telephone call by A. E. Almcrants, Mill Valley city manager.

The appointment presumably will be made formally at the Jan. 6 meeting of the Mill Valley City Council.

The council and Almcrants have been seeking a city engineer to replace Albert H. Siemer, who submitted his resignation at the latest council meeting but had advised earlier he was quitting.

The partners in the firm, Polish-born Stanley M. Bala and Danish-born Strandgaard, both came to the United States as refugees from Nazi occupation of their homelands after completing their education in Europe. Their office is in the Herzog-Rake building at 1005 A street.

Gunman Menaces Lighthouse Men

They say a lighthouse keeper's life is one of lonely but rewarding solitude.

But it wasn't always so.

Take the case yesterday of two Coast Guardsmen at the Lime Point Lighthouse, just east of the Marin portal of the Golden Gate Bridge.

At about 4 p.m., Seaman Richard T. Breckel, 19, and Fireman Clarence C. Carter, 25, were having a quiet cup of coffee. They heard a shot, and a bullet drilled into the 75-year-old building.

Breckel went outside to investigate. He met a man who pointed a .22-caliber pistol at Breckel.

The man, apparently familiar with the arsenal inside, told Breckel he wanted the lighthouse's .45 pistol. He marched Breckel inside and repeated his demand. Breckel took the gun from a drawer and gave it to him, with a full clip of ammunition and five more bullets.

Carter asked him if he was shooting real bullets from the .22.

The man's answer was two more shots, one bullet imbedding itself in the floor, the other in a table leg. Then he shot a bottle of catsup off a table, and started to go.

"You gonna use that phone, kid?" the man asked. And before either Guardsmen could answer, the man fired and put a hole in the instrument.

He went outside and fired another shot, the sixth, from the .22, then left.

The telephone still worked. Breckel called his headquarters to report the shootings and theft. He'd seen the trigger-happy intruder before, he said, fishing in the area.

About an hour later, military policemen and San Francisco police arrested salesman Willard Salberg, 42, of 1729 Grove street, San Francisco, at a bar at 2990 Baker street. He was found waving the stolen gun at an Army captain.

Salberg, taken into custody after a scuffle, was booked for illegal possession of fire arms and assault with a deadly weapon. He was held for the U.S. marshal.

Police said he admitted the lighthouse holdup, but could not tell them why he stole the gun. The .22 was found later in Salberg's car, police said.

A plan is now under study that would make the lighthouse automatic. The proposal has been submitted to bay pilots before being sent to Coast Guard headquarters in Washington.

Breckel and Carter wished it was automatic yesterday. Then they wouldn't have been there.

Elliott Accepts Illini Coach Job

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Pete Elliott, for the last three years football coach at the University of California in Berkeley, today was named head coach at Illinois and accepted the job. He succeeds Ray Eliot, who retired after the 1959 season.

Elliott, 33, becomes the youngest head football coach in the Big Ten, being a year younger than his brother, Chalmers, who has just ended his first season at Michigan.

Planners Reject Tiburon Project

A tempting proposal for a $7,844,000 Tiburon Peninsula development was turned down late yesterday by the Marin County Planning Commission.

The rejection was by unanimous vote, but the commissioners virtually had tears in their eyes.

In moving the denial, Mrs. Margaret Azevedo said: "This is an excellently conceived plan that respects the terrain. If it were for an area like Red Hill, I would praise Allah. But this (Paradise Cove) is the wrong place for it."

Commissioner James Cuzner said: "I admire the plans but will second the motion."

Dr. William Upton, commission chairman, commented: "The plan is very good but I think that the people of the area have depended on their master plan and it is difficult to go over their heads."

But he told L. L. Olds of San Rafael, who had presented the scheme on the basis of a letter signed by Forrest Walters of Napa, that an appeal to the supervisors could be made. Olds later said he would appeal.

Water Lack Stirs Building Ban Appeal

Residents of Muir Woods Park asked the Marin County Board of Supervisors today to pass an ordinance prohibiting construction of new homes unless a water district is able to certify availability of ample water to serve them.

The request was made by Max J. Janoff, president of Muir Wood Parks Improvement Assn. His community, on the slopes of Mt. Tamalpais adjacent to Mill Valley, has been hit regularly by water shortage.

He declared that every summer supply fails completely for several hours during the weekends at the height of the tourist season at Muir Woods National Monument, and that some homes have been out of water for as long as three days.

Marin Municipal Water District serves both the national monument and the Muir Woods Park area from the same water source.

Janoff declared that although the water supply is so inadequate, permits are still being issued for building more homes in the area.

Brazilian Planes Collide; 31 Dead

RIO DE JANIERO (AP)—A Brazilian airliner and an air force trainer collided in the air today, with an apparent toll of 31 dead.

Officials at the scene said it appeared that all aboard the airliner perished when it crashed. It hit and badly damaged four houses.

The pilot of the military plane parachuted to safety.

Gas Roars Out Of Line Torn By Bulldozer

A bulldozer cut Marin County's 16-inch main gasline with a deafening roar at 9:30 a.m. today beside Ranchitos road opposite Mt. Olivet cemetery entrance.

While fire equipment, police and most of the Los Ranchitos population rushed to the scene and rumors went out of a jet crash, the bulldozer operator ran in fright from the scene and did not return.

For nearly half an hour gas pouring out of the torn steel pipe at around 200 pounds pressure created the semblance of a geyser shooting perhaps 100 feet into the air. An estimated half-million cubic feet of gas was lost.

After a Pacific Gas and Electric Co. emergency crew from San Rafael "valved off" about a mile and a half of the line containing the break, the whole county began to receive its gas, not from the normal source at Rio Vista, but from a network of underground storage pipes at a "holder station" near the scene of the break.

It was expected that pipe repairs would be completed by about 2 p.m. when normal supply could be resumed. Meanwhile, the storage gas was believed sufficient to last at least half a day.

Here was the sequence of events:

SOUGHT ADVENTURE

2 Marin Boys Safe After Losing Way On Mt. Tam

The lights of Mill Valley looked better than a decorated Christmas tree last night to a pair of Larkspur boys who sought adventure on Mt. Tamalpais.

Jack Martin, 13, and Jimmy Johnson, 12, had lost their way in heavy brush as darkness and fog settled on the mountain slope. With them was Jimmy's dog, Junior.

The boys had started up Larkspur's Baltimore Canyon at 10 a.m. with the idea of following fire trails to the Mt. Tam ranger station. But they took "Shortcuts" which proved to be their undoing.

Near the top, they became lost in the dense, chest-high chapparal. There was still some daylight when Jimmy stripped of his shirt and tried to signal to planes flying overhead.

Failing to draw attention, the boys spent nearly two hours hacking their way down to an old Indian trail, using an ax which Jack had been carrying.

It was pitch dark when they reached a fork in the trail that led down to Mill Valley. Scratched and bleeding, they hitched a ride to the Mill Valley police station, where an officer notified their frantic parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Martin of 409 Holcomb avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Johnson of 205 Monte Vista avenue.

When the boys had failed to return for supper, the parents had notified the Larkspur police and fire departments.

UNLIKELY HOLDUP SCENE—Few people would pick a lighthouse for a holdup, but a man did yesterday, as he fired several shots in robbing two Coast Guardsmen of a gun at the Lime Point Lighthouse, here seen as it appears from the approach bridge almost beneath Golden Gate Bridge. Those traveling over the bridge get only a topside view of the lighthouse. (Independent-Journal photo)

Separate Sessions Begin Sunday In Steel Dispute

WASHINGTON (AP)—Federal mediators plowed ahead today without visible progress in the steel dispute while plans sprouted for 93 separate bargaining sessions across the country Sunday.

Seemingly to the surprise of some unionists, industry negotiators bowed quickly yesterday to the demand of United Steelworkers Union president David J. McDonald for company-by-company negotiations.

This scrambled the bargaining picture. McDonald apparently hoped that by bringing the responsible executives of every big and little steel firm into direct talks, he could crack the industry front which has held almost completely solid for eight months against the union's wage and benefits demands.

There was no immediate sign, however, that any of the smaller companies were ready to offer their local union leaders any more than the industry's top negotiating team has offered McDonald.

Each company has its own contract with the union, even though the bargaining up to now has been an an industry-wide basis.

The continuing deadlock made it almost certain President Eisenhower, returning to the capital tonight after his 11-nation peace mission, won't get his homecoming present he requested when he left—a signed and sealed steel agreement.

MEETINGS SLATED

Federal Mediation Director Joseph F. Finnegan scheduled morning and afternoon meetings today between top union officials and the industry's negotiating team. They met yesterday for the first time in 10 days, but reported no progress.

Finnegan said there probably will be more sessions as the week advances—perhaps even next Sunday, while the dozens of home town negotiations are going on.

On Sunday, representatives of the "Big 11" steel companies will hold separate meetings in Washington with their own union bargaining committees. These companies are the original dozen firms making up the Steel Industry Coordinating Committee, less Kaiser Steel which pulled out and made a separate contract.

LOCAL MEETINGS

Also on Sunday, but in many cities and mill towns, the other 82 firms which are parties to the dispute will meet with their local union officials.

On Monday, Eisenhower's fact-finding panel headed by Dr. George R. Taylor moves back into the picture. It has called the parties into a public hearing here to discuss the situation and to obtain the companies' "last offers," on which the workers will vote next month under provisions of the Taft-Hartley law.

Hayden Kids To Spend Yule In L.A.

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The four children of actor Sterling Hayden will spend the Christmas holidays with their mother and then will return to the custody of their sea-voyaging father.

Superior Court Judge Louis H. Burke made the ruling yesterday. He also said Hayden could visit the children Christmas Day.

Burke said the actor could take the children to live in Belvedere but would have to bring them back to Los Angeles avery fourth week end to see their mother, Mrs. Betty De Noon Hayden, 37.

The judge said Hayden would retain custody of the children pending the outcome of a custody hearing Jan. 25. Hayden's former wife is attempting to regain custody of the children, Christian, 11; Thor, 10; Gretchen, 9, and Matthew, 7, after his 10-month voyage with them on his schooner.

Northeast Gripped By Big Snowstorm

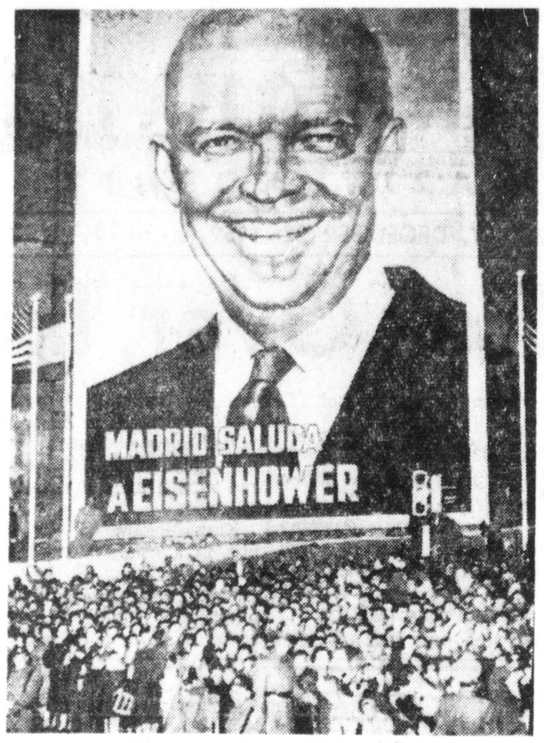

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The first day of winter today found the Northeast shivering under a vast blanket of snow as deep as 10 inches in some spots.

One death occurred during the snowstorm in a traffic accident at Sturbridge, Mass.

Travelers crept along treacherously icy highways. Schools closed in some areas. Emergency crews moved in quickly to keep traffic moving where possible. Some buses were trapped in the snow. Trains were late. Air traffic was slightly delayed.

Heavy winds whipped the snow across a region stretching from the Great Lakes east through Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Maryland, New Jersey, New York and parts of New England.

IKE, FRANCO AGREE:

West Must Maintain Strong Defenses

MADRID (AP) — President Eisenhower and Generalissimo Francisco Franco agreed today Western talks with the Soviets and the President's visit to Moscow next year will help the cause of peace. But they asked "a firm defense posture should be maintained" by the West.

The two chiefs of state after a breakfast conference of two hours and 20 minutes at Franco's Pardo Palace said their conversation strengthened the bonds of cooperation between Spain and the United States.

JOINT STATEMENT

They issued a joint statement as Eisenhower took off in his big jet airliner for Morocco, the last stop of his 11-nation goodwill tour. His reception in Madrid, the next to last stop, was the greatest ever given a foreign visitor in modern Spain. White House press secretary James C. Hagerty quoted Eisenhower as saying he was completely overwhelmed.

About a million Spaniards roared "Viva Ike" as the President rode through Madrid with Franco, resplendent in his generalissimo's uniform, in cold rain and wind late yesterday.

TOASTS PRESIDENT

Franco said in toasting Eisenhower at a banquet last night that Spaniards are well aware "we enjoy the preservation of liberty in Western Europe, without falling under the Communist yoke, due to your energy and generosity and that of your country."

Eisenhower, in replying, expressed hope for greater friendship and cooperation between Spain and the United States. He cited the Christmas celebration of the birth of Christ as "the reason to rededicate ourselves to these timeless principles for which He gave His life."

Franco told Eisenhower he had won the sympathy and admiration of the Spanish people.

Algerian Rebels Change Leaders

CAIRO (AP)—Algerian rebel leaders were reported today to have reshuffled their provisional government-in-exile and named a tough military commander as premier.

Reliable North African sources said the new cabinet would be a five-man military government headed by Krim Belkacem, former vice premier and defense minister.

Belkacem is a shadowy figure who has been involved mainly with the military conduct of the five-year-old rebellion. Last year he was quoted as saying that his men would not lay down their arms unless France recognizes Algeria's independence.

Nix Integrated Housing

DEERFIELD, Ill. (UPI)—A hotly disputed plan to build racially integrated housing in this all-white Chicago suburb was in effect turned down by a better than 2 to 1 referendum vote yesterday.

A total 85.9 per cent of the village's voters cast ballots in a referendum on whether the village should condemn land which includes 51 acres owned by a home-building firm.

The builder had announced it planned to build homes in the $30,000 class and sell 10 or 12 to Negroes "of an equal economic and educational level" as Deerfield residents.

Less Tainted Milk

WASHINGTON (AP) — A 1958 Food and Drug Administration survey shows much less contamination of milk by pesticides than in 1955. Again, DDT was the chief culprit.

The previous survey in 1955 showed 62 per cent of the 800 milk samples tested contained pesticide residues.

The 1958 survey, made public yesterday, showed 33 per cent of 936 raw milk samples contained "substantial amounts of residue." Substantial was defined as 0.1 part per million.

Living Costs Rise To New Record High

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The nation's living costs edged upward last month to another record high, the government reported today.

The Labor Department said its consumer price index rose one-tenth of 1 per cent to 125.6 per cent of average 1947-49 prices.

It was the sixth time in the last seven months that it climbed to an all-time peak.

Higher costs for transportation, medical care, housing and personal care more than offset declining food prices in November.

The increase means that 170,000 meat packing, aircraft and other workers will receive pay boosts of from one to three cents an hour. Their wages are tied to changes in the index by escalator clauses.

Separate Sessions Begin Sunday In Steel Dispute

WASHINGTON (AP)—Federal mediators plowed ahead today without visible progress in the steel dispute while plans sprouted for 93 separate bargaining sessions across the country Sunday.

Seemingly to the surprise of some unionists, industry negotiators bowed quickly yesterday to the demand of United Steelworkers Union president David J. McDonald for company-by-company negotiations.

This scrambled the bargaining picture. McDonald apparently hoped that by bringing the responsible executives of every big and little steel firm into direct talks, he could crack the industry front which has held almost completely solid for eight months against the union's wage and benefits demands.

There was no immediate sign, however, that any of the smaller companies were ready to offer their local union leaders any more than the industry's top negotiating team has offered McDonald.

Each company has its own contract with the union, even though the bargaining up to now has been an an industry-wide basis.

The continuing deadlock made it almost certain President Eisenhower, returning to the capital tonight after his 11-nation peace mission, won't get his homecoming present he requested when he left—a signed and sealed steel agreement.

MEETINGS SLATED

Federal Mediation Director Joseph F. Finnegan scheduled morning and afternoon meetings today between top union officials and the industry's negotiating team. They met yesterday for the first time in 10 days, but reported no progress.

Finnegan said there probably will be more sessions as the week advances—perhaps even next Sunday, while the dozens of home town negotiations are going on.

On Sunday, representatives of the "Big 11" steel companies will hold separate meetings in Washington with their own union bargaining committees. These companies are the original dozen firms making up the Steel Industry Coordinating Committee, less Kaiser Steel which pulled out and made a separate contract.

LOCAL MEETINGS

Also on Sunday, but in many cities and mill towns, the other 82 firms which are parties to the dispute will meet with their local union officials.

On Monday, Eisenhower's fact-finding panel headed by Dr. George R. Taylor moves back into the picture. It has called the parties into a public hearing here to discuss the situation and to obtain the companies' "last offers," on which the workers will vote next month under provisions of the Taft-Hartley law.

Madera Gardens Permits Halted

Issuance of building, plumbing and electrical permits for undeveloped lots in Madera Gardens was halted last night by the Corte Madera Town Council.

No further permits, the council decreed, may be issued "until the legal status of the Madera Gardens drainage system is determined and assured to the town's satisfaction." The system includes lagoons No. 1 and 2.

Affected by the edict are units 8, 9 and 10 of Madera Gardens. The other seven units have no undeveloped lots.

What the town wants, it was indicated, is fee title to both lagoons and to major portions of Corte Madera High Canal for maintenance as drainage facilities. The town now has drainage easements on them, but no deed.

The council has objected to the wording of a proposed deed which would have left exclusive recreation rights to the lagoons in the hands of their present owners, H. C. (Josh) Billings, Jack Rentz, Olaf Johnson and Ralph Tobener.

The owners were "invited" recently to make an offer of easements omitting the word "exclusive" and deleting a paragraph barring the town forever from filling the lagoons. But no such offer has been made.

Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow, who recommended the temporary halt of building permits, said the lagoons have appeared on the county's delinquent tax rolls for several years. He warned they could be disposed of at a tax sale and "fall into the hands of some unsympathetic people."

Answering fears expressed in a letter from one lagoon resident, Brandon said there is no proposal by the town to open the lakes for public recreation or to fill them for use as municipal parks.

He did not, however, rule out the possibility that waterfront residents may some day wish to change the character of the lagoons.

THE GANG'S ALL HERE

For the first time since Sept. 8, the Corte Madera Town Council last night had all five members present at a council meeting.

Councilman William R. Hansen returned after a 90-day leave of absence, during which he was in New Orleans on business. He is a chemical engineer with Standard Oil Co. of California.

Redwood High Approach Closed By Tam Board

The Lucky drive approach to Redwood High School was closed today and will stay closed for about one month.

Tamalpais Union High School District trustees voted unanimously to close it at their meeting last night, after a request from the Sausalito construction firm of Vincent Maggiora and Son, Inc.

Conditions would be too hazardous to leave the road open with the heavy equipment in the vicinity for a drainage culvert project, Supt. Chester G. Carlisle said.

Harold M. Engle, the district's structural engineer, reporting on the cost of improving a 32-acre proposed school site in Marin City, said no immediate filling of the site would be practical. "There is no question but that as soon as it can be done, it should be done," he added.

Bert Klahn, Marin County Housing Authority executive director, reminded the board that the housing authority wants to be sure the land does not become an eyesore by being left a weed patch for 10 to 15 years. "I think you should project your thinking regarding this school site beyond two years," he said.

Klahn said there may be 1,500 family units in Marin City when it is completely redeveloped.

"If there will be 1,500 family units instead of the original 600 units," board member Howard I. McGill said, "this plays a great deal in the picture of this district having a high school at Marin City." McGill asked Klahn that he keep the district abreast of the housing authority's plans.

"The board is not going to let weeds grow up to your detriment," he assured the housing director.

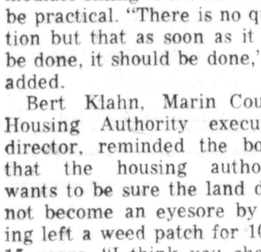

In other action, the board:

1. Accepted, with regret, the resignation of Mrs. Barbara Meislin, a teacher of Redwood High School, currently on maternity leave.
2. Accepted for Sir Francis Drake High School a large box of chemicals and drugs donated by James Normandy and Al Angelini of Jack's Drug Store, San Anselmo. Two books were also accepted for Drake.
3. Approved a pamphlet which would describe the use of the $2,940,000 bond issue voted in 1955, the pamphlet to be printed by Tamalpais High School equipment.
4. Declared that rehabilitation work at Tamalpais High School has been completed satisfactorily.
5. Heard a report by Richard Campion, principal at Tamalpais High School, that assignment of a traffic control officer at the busy intersection in front of the school has improved the situation.

STATE TAXES WON'T BE CUT, BROWN SAYS

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown said today a cut in state taxes next year is unthinkable.

Brown told a news conference that the state's mushrooming growth and the constant demand for new universities and state colleges, medical schools and other facilities made it impossible for him to recommend any decrease in taxes to the Legislature next March.

The governor said last week that he woulld not ask the Legislature for any tax increases in 1960.

Missilemen Light Up For Holidays

On Angel Island, there is a 38-foot five-pointed star that shines to Marin, San Francisco, the East Bay and the heavens.

On San Pedro Point near San Rafael, there is a 25-foot candle surrounded by colored lights.

The star is the work of enlisted men of D Battery, 2nd Missile Battalion, 51st Artillery. The candle, painted on a canvas supported by a wooden frame, is the work of men of Battery C of the same organization. Battery D operates a Nike-Ajax site, Battery C, a Nike-Hercules base.

A giant Army searchlight flashes in a circular sweep for three hours each evening to call attention to the star on Angel Island.

San Rafael To Install Two Traffic Lights

Two new traffic signals will go up in San Rafael at Fourth and A streets and at Fifth avenue and H street about Feb. 1.

The city council last night awarded a $6,290 contract to R. Flatland Co. of San Francisco to install the signals. Only other bidder was L. H. Leonardi Co. of San Rafael, who offered to do the work for $6,483.

City fathers also established two-hour parking limitation on Lincoln avenue extension from Second street to Irwin street, and on the north side of Fourth street from Marquard avenue to the San Anselmo city limit.

In other action last night, the city council:

1. Asked the traffic advisory committee for a study on what if any action should be taken on all-night parking along residential streets. Councilman Fred E. Jensen complained that "everyone is abusing the privilege," even those who have driveways.
2. Accepted all sewer easements in Lloyd Grandi's Fairhills subdivision. Public Works Director Norris Rawles described it as a "pig in a poke." The sewer lines are in disrepair, the city councilmen realize they are inheriting a headache. However, because of the health hazards caused by line breakage, the city decided to take over the responsibility.
3. Permitted the Social Security Administration to use the city council chambers on Mondays and Fridays, beginning next year. However, if the city needs the hall for its own use in the future, Social Security will be asked to move out. Charles H. Shreve, district manager for Social Security Administration, said the agency must move out of present quarters in the California Employment Office building and can find no other quarters.

Madera Gardens Permits Halted

Issuance of building, plumbing and electrical permits for undeveloped lots in Madera Gardens was halted last night by the Corte Madera Town Council.

No further permits, the council decreed, may be issued "until the legal status of the Madera Gardens drainage system is determined and assured to the town's satisfaction." The system includes lagoons No. 1 and 2.

Affected by the edict are units 8, 9 and 10 of Madera Gardens. The other seven units have no undeveloped lots.

What the town wants, it was indicated, is fee title to both lagoons and to major portions of Corte Madera High Canal for maintenance as drainage facilities. The town now has drainage easements on them, but no deed.

The council has objected to the wording of a proposed deed which would have left exclusive recreation rights to the lagoons in the hands of their present owners, H. C. (Josh) Billings, Jack Rentz, Olaf Johnson and Ralph Tobener.

The owners were "invited" recently to make an offer of easements omitting the word "exclusive" and deleting a paragraph barring the town forever from filling the lagoons. But no such offer has been made.

Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow, who recommended the temporary halt of building permits, said the lagoons have appeared on the county's delinquent tax rolls for several years. He warned they could be disposed of at a tax sale and "fall into the hands of some unsympathetic people."

Answering fears expressed in a letter from one lagoon resident, Brandon said there is no proposal by the town to open the lakes for public recreation or to fill them for use as municipal parks.

He did not, however, rule out the possibility that waterfront residents may some day wish to change the character of the lagoons.

THE GANG'S ALL HERE

For the first time since Sept. 8, the Corte Madera Town Council last night had all five members present at a council meeting.

Councilman William R. Hansen returned after a 90-day leave of absence, during which he was in New Orleans on business. He is a chemical engineer with Standard Oil Co. of California.

Redwood High Approach Closed By Tam Board

The Lucky drive approach to Redwood High School was closed today and will stay closed for about one month.

Tamalpais Union High School District trustees voted unanimously to close it at their meeting last night, after a request from the Sausalito construction firm of Vincent Maggiora and Son, Inc.

Conditions would be too hazardous to leave the road open with the heavy equipment in the vicinity for a drainage culvert project, Supt. Chester G. Carlisle said.

Harold M. Engle, the district's structural engineer, reporting on the cost of improving a 32-acre proposed school site in Marin City, said no immediate filling of the site would be practical. "There is no question but that as soon as it can be done, it should be done," he added.

Bert Klahn, Marin County Housing Authority executive director, reminded the board that the housing authority wants to be sure the land does not become an eyesore by being left a weed patch for 10 to 15 years. "I think you should project your thinking regarding this school site beyond two years," he said.

Klahn said there may be 1,500 family units in Marin City when it is completely redeveloped.

"If there will be 1,500 family units instead of the original 600 units," board member Howard I. McGill said, "this plays a great deal in the picture of this district having a high school at Marin City." McGill asked Klahn that he keep the district abreast of the housing authority's plans.

"The board is not going to let weeds grow up to your detriment," he assured the housing director.

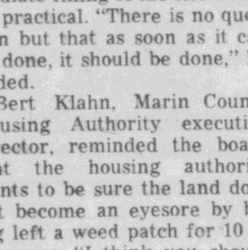

In other action, the board:

1. Accepted, with regret, the resignation of Mrs. Barbara Meislin, a teacher of Redwood High School, currently on maternity leave.
2. Accepted for Sir Francis Drake High School a large box of chemicals and drugs donated by James Normandy and Al Angelini of Jack's Drug Store, San Anselmo. Two books were also accepted for Drake.
3. Approved a pamphlet which would describe the use of the $2,940,000 bond issue voted in 1955, the pamphlet to be printed by Tamalpais High School equipment.
4. Declared that rehabilitation work at Tamalpais High School has been completed satisfactorily.
5. Heard a report by Richard Campion, principal at Tamalpais High School, that assignment of a traffic control officer at the busy intersection in front of the school has improved the situation.

TIBURON

was written on behalf of "a syndicate of substantial businessmen who own 68 acres of property known as Paradise Park in Paradise Cove." It asked rezoning to permit construction of 18 "handsome and top quality garden apartment buildings" costing $148,000 each or a total of $2,664,000 on a 24-acre parcel.

There would also be 14 $20,000 homes, each on a two-acre site, to a value of $280,000; a $300,000 yacht harbor with 230 slips and a clubhouse, and 230 yachts were anticipated with $4,600,000 total value.

Taxable total investment was estimated at $3,244,000 in buildings and $4,600,000 in yachts to a total of $7,844,000, plus personal property. Rezoning of 40 acres from single residential to "planned residential" to allow the apartments would be necessary.

Development under present zoning, said the letter, would yield 52 single family homes on one-acre sites to a total value of about $1,040,000.

But against the plan was ranged a variety of opposition starting with a letter from William H. Von Lackum II, chairman of the land use committee of the Tiburon Coordinating Council. He wrote his group is "completely opposed . . . We can't conceive of a use change for arbitrarily planting multiple in the midst of single family."

Dr. Fenimore Cady Jr., vice president of the Paradise Property Owners Assn., said there was a 100 per cent protest of residents in the immediate area.

Planning Director Mary Summers said that since adoption of the Tiburon Peninsula master plan in 1956, there have been many efforts toward multiple zoning, but at this time there can be no recommendation of change.

"The entire area has been of low density single family type," said Mrs. Summers. "This would be spot zoning. But development of a yacht harbor would be a recommended use and would not require rezoning.

David Winslow of 3900 Paradise drive, who said his property is immediately north of the proposed project, urged support of the Tiburon Master Plan, a "useful tool evolved with sweat and tears."

Plant Starts Training Line

A training line was set up and a few girls began their training yesterday in the manufacture of diodes at Fairchild Semiconductor Corp.'s temporary plant at 27 Jordan street in San Rafael.

Equipment for making small semi-conductors employed in computer switch circuits and rectifier circuits was moved over the weekend from Mountain View and Palo Alto.

Work will continue at the Jordan street plant until the new plant is completed opposite Terra Linda in northern San Rafael. The company plans to have the plant operating by June.

No Decision Yet On Kayo's Trial

Whether Kayo Hallinan, 22, of Ross should be re-tried for felonious assault still hangs in balance.

The case was continued until Thursday morning becaus Judge Thomas F. Keating did not apepar in court yesterday. Deputy county clerks said they do not know whether the judge is ill.

PLAY AREA

San Rafael needs a community facility of the type that cannot be accommodated in schools because of the conflict of either time or function. A community center could be used by senior citizens, by adults for social functions, and by the community as a whole. State studies show that a minimum of 15 to 20 acres would be needed for such a facility.

However, the six to eight acres which he proposes would suffice in this area because it is ideally situated between two school grounds. The school grounds and the adjacent community center area would complement each other.

ACQUIRE IT NOW

Acquiring the Freitas land now would be much better than trying to get a recreation area after homes have been built, he contended.

Anderson estimated the Terra Linda basin would eventually have a population of 12,000.

"I think your anticipated figure of 12,000 is a little off," declared Baar. The councilman said that 90 per cent of usable flat land is already taken up and the population is only 6,000.

Baar called for an over-all study and establishment of priorities before a site is picked.

"Whether you agree or not, this is a priority of sorts," said Mayor McInnis.

COULDN'T FIND SPACE

Carl J. Brown, member of the recreation and park commission, said that commission is in favor of purchasing the community center site for Little League, for example, but could not find any close to town. Buildings had to be razed to make way for downtown parking space, he pointed out.

Councilman Charles W. Aby said purchase of land now on the Freitas ranch would be saving San Rafael later from problems of congestion now faced in the older areas.

"Suppose this area (the developed area of Terra Linda) does not annex," Baar asked. "Who is the community center going to serve?"

"The whole area is a basin," Aby replied. "People live there, and they should be served."

Aby moved that the council start negotiating for land on the Freitas ranch .Councilman Menary seconded the motion, although he agreed with Baar that an over-all study should be made before sites are bought.

"Over a long haul, I feel it (the Freitas ranch site) will benefit San Rafael," said Menary.

However, the vote never came to pass.

Councilmen decided that a formal vote would not be needed to negotiate with the Freitas family. The vote on whether to buy the land will come later.

Dixie Board Meeting

A special meeting of the board of trustees of the Dixie School District will be held tomorrow at 6:15 p.m. at the administration office, 4775 Redwood highway.

Jones and Sons, Berkeley contractors, started from Ranchitos road at the Del Presidio boulevard entrance to Terra Linda Valley. It had a scraper and was to work on dirt surface preparatory to paving.

The scraper dropped into a hole several feet across in which was visible the main PG&E gas line from Rio Vista. it ripped through the top half of the 16-inch line, releasing the gas with explosive force—but not igniting it.

Many in the vicinity thought an explosion had occured. Rumors flew that a jet plane had crashed.

A short distance to the south Jesse F. Thomas looked out his window at 11 Constance drive.

"I saw a dark, narrow geyser shoot into the air," he said. "Then it turned transparent. There was a loud noise like steam blowing out of a pipe, roaring."

In San Rafael, Carlos E. Gonzalez, vice president of George S. Nolte, consulting civil engineers, was talking by phone with an associate working with Eichler Homes in the development project.

"I heard the roar over the telephone as we were talking," said he, on the scene a few minutes later. "So I just got out here quick."

Chief Charles Reilley of the Marin County Fire Department got out in a hurry too with two fire trucks, one from Santa Venetia and one from San Rafael. "It was mainly a traffic problem," he commented, "with everybody in the vicinity rushing in from all around."

The sheriff's office, the California Highway Patrol and San Rafael police all put men on the scene promptly. But nobody could locate the blundering bulldozer operator which a resident said "went behind that hill."

Meanwhile, PG&E personnel rushed from headquarters at Second and Brooks streets in San Rafael, had a tough time to get through the traffic to shut off the line at Highway 101 and Lucas Valley road, and at the underground holder station just north of Highway 101 opposite Circle drive. This isolated 1½ miles of pipe.

Supply was resumed from the underground pipe network of the holder station. Everybody was getting gas but about 30 homes which are fed directly off the cut-off line section.

OBITUARIES

Thomas Cuffe Dies; Ship Firm President

Thomas Edward Cuffe, 62, of Kent Woodlands, who rose from Stanley Dollar's office boy to president and board chairman of Pacific Far East Lines, died of a cerebral hemorrhage early today in a San Francisco hospital.

Cuffe had returned to his home at 30 Rancheria road, Kentfield, after earlier hospitalization but was stricken and returned to the hospital.

His career in shipping began in 1920 when he got a job as office boy with the old Dollar Lines. Early marked as a "comer" by R. Stanley Dollar, San Rafael's tycoon of shipping lines to the Orient, he advanced steadily in the company to become vice president while still a young man.

He remained with Dollar Steamship Co. and its successor, American President Lines, until the end of World War II, when he left to participate in organization of Pacific Far East Lines as executive vice president.

The new firm rapidly established itself under his leadership in a top position among U.S. flag lines on the Pacific Ocean, covering all the principal trade routes of the Orient. He was named president only a short time after its organization, and later was also made chairman of the board.

Cuffe was born in Stockdale, Kan., Aug. 28, 1897, the son of Maj. Thomas Patrick Cuffe and Mary Cuffe. His childhood was spent at various Army posts in the United States and abroad where his father, a major, was stationed.

The family moved to Marin County about 1912, and young Cuffe attended Tamalpais High School. He entered University of California at Berkeley in 1916, but interrupted his education two years later to serve as a second lieutenant in the Army during World War I. Following the war, he completed schooling for a bachelor of science degree at U.C. in Davis. His job with Dollar Lines was his first after completing school.

He is survived by his wife, Claire E., and four children, Thomas Edwin, 16; Mary Caroline, 14; Michael Francis, 10, and Patrick James, 7, all at the Kent Woodlands home.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 11 a.m. at Chapel of the Hills in San Anselmo. Burial will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

Gilda Gray Shimmy Dance Star, Dies

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Gilda Gray, the "shimmy" dancer who parlayed her gyrations into a fortune on stage and screen in the roaring 20s, died of a heart attack today. She was 60.

An ambulance and a fire department rescue unit were called and she was taken to Hollywood Receiving Hospital. Efforts to save her failed.

The dancer, still trim of figure, had lived here about two years after she overcame a long illness. She had lived on a ranch in Colorado previously.

Miss Gray, a native of Krakow, Poland, born Marianna Michalska, was brought to the United States as a child and made her stage debut in Milwaukee.

She told an interviewer recently that she invented the "shimmy" by accident when she was singing the "Star Spangled Banner." She said the English words came with difficulty and she gyrated her body while singing.

TIBURON

was written on behalf of "a syndicate of substantial businessmen who own 68 acres of property known as Paradise Park in Paradise Cove." It asked rezoning to permit construction of 18 "handsome and top quality garden apartment buildings" costing $148,000 each or a total of $2,664,000 on a 24-acre parcel.

There would also be 14 $20,000 homes, each on a two-acre site, to a value of $280,000; a $300,000 yacht harbor with 230 slips and a clubhouse, and 230 yachts were anticipated with $4,600,000 total value.

Taxable total investment was estimated at $3,244,000 in buildings and $4,600,000 in yachts to a total of $7,844,000, plus personal property. Rezoning of 40 acres from single residential to "planned residential" to allow the apartments would be necessary.

Development under present zoning, said the letter, would yield 52 single family homes on one-acre sites to a total value of about $1,040,000.

But against the plan was ranged a variety of opposition starting with a letter from William H. Von Lackum II, chairman of the land use committee of the Tiburon Coordinating Council. He wrote his group is "completely opposed . . . We can't conceive of a use change for arbitrarily planting multiple in the midst of single family."

Dr. Fenimore Cady Jr., vice president of the Paradise Property Owners Assn., said there was a 100 per cent protest of residents in the immediate area.

Planning Director Mary Summers said that since adoption of the Tiburon Peninsula master plan in 1956, there have been many efforts toward multiple zoning, but at this time there can be no recommendation of change.

"The entire area has been of low density single family type," said Mrs. Summers. "This would be spot zoning. But development of a yacht harbor would be a recommended use and would not require rezoning.

David Winslow of 3900 Paradise drive, who said his property is immediately north of the proposed project, urged support of the Tiburon Master Plan, a "useful tool evolved with sweat and tears."

Plant Starts Training Line

A training line was set up and a few girls began their training yesterday in the manufacture of diodes at Fairchild Semiconductor Corp.'s temporary plant at 27 Jordan street in San Rafael.

Equipment for making small semi-conductors employed in computer switch circuits and rectifier circuits was moved over the weekend from Mountain View and Palo Alto.

Work will continue at the Jordan street plant until the new plant is completed opposite Terra Linda in northern San Rafael. The company plans to have the plant operating by June.

PLAY AREA

San Rafael needs a community facility of the type that cannot be accommodated in schools because of the conflict of either time or function. A community center could be used by senior citizens, by adults for social functions, and by the community as a whole. State studies show that a minimum of 15 to 20 acres would be needed for such a facility.

However, the six to eight acres which he proposes would suffice in this area because it is ideally situated between two school grounds. The school grounds and the adjacent community center area would complement each other.

ACQUIRE IT NOW

Acquiring the Freitas land now would be much better than trying to get a recreation area after homes have been built, he contended.

Anderson estimated the Terra Linda basin would eventually have a population of 12,000.

"I think your anticipated figure of 12,000 is a little off," declared Baar. The councilman said that 90 per cent of usable flat land is already taken up and the population is only 6,000.

Baar called for an over-all study and establishment of priorities before a site is picked.

"Whether you agree or not, this is a priority of sorts," said Mayor McInnis.

COULDN'T FIND SPACE

Carl J. Brown, member of the recreation and park commission, said that commission is in favor of purchasing the community center site for Little League, for example, but could not find any close to town. Buildings had to be razed to make way for downtown parking space, he pointed out.

Councilman Charles W. Aby said purchase of land now on the Freitas ranch would be saving San Rafael later from problems of congestion now faced in the older areas.

"Suppose this area (the developed area of Terra Linda) does not annex," Baar asked. "Who is the community center going to serve?"

"The whole area is a basin," Aby replied. "People live there, and they should be served."

Aby moved that the council start negotiating for land on the Freitas ranch .Councilman Menary seconded the motion, although he agreed with Baar that an over-all study should be made before sites are bought.

"Over a long haul, I feel it (the Freitas ranch site) will benefit San Rafael," said Menary.

However, the vote never came to pass.

Councilmen decided that a formal vote would not be needed to negotiate with the Freitas family. The vote on whether to buy the land will come later.

Dixie Board Meeting

A special meeting of the board of trustees of the Dixie School District will be held tomorrow at 6:15 p.m. at the administration office, 4775 Redwood highway.

MOUNT TAMALPAIS CEMETERY

Where Acres of Marin Beauty Are Assured for the Years

Marin pioneers chose this secluded spot nearly 90 years ago—a place of natural beauty, of peace and dignity to honor their loved ones.

This character of Mount Tamalpais Cemetery has not changed. Nor shall it change through the years.

For the lasting care of this property—its trees, lawns and gardens—is assured by a generous ($250,000) and ever-growing Endowment Fund that is double the legal requirement. And with less than one-tenth of its acreage utilized, Mount Tamalpais Cemetery will be long able to serve the growing Marin County communities.

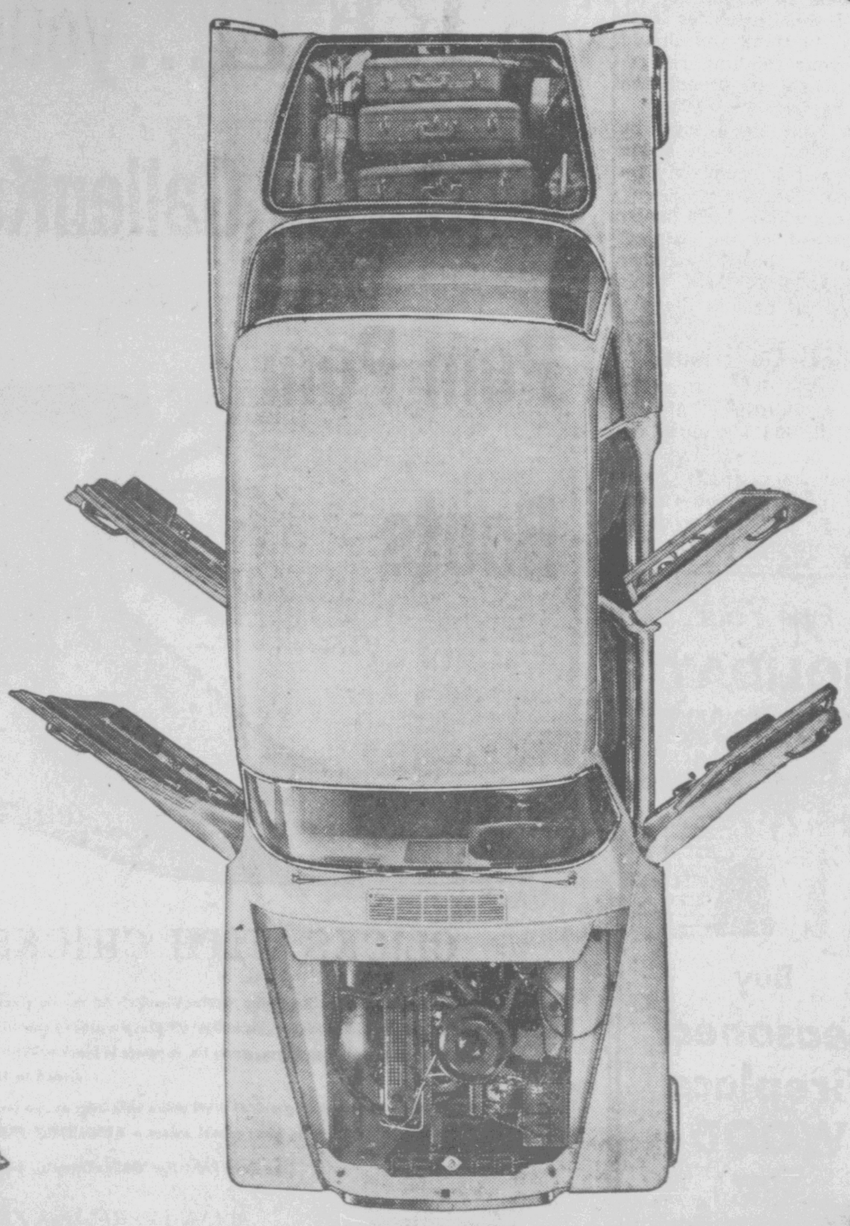

There is much to see here of inspiration and beauty. Every faith is served and every type of final resting place is available to meet every family budget; ground interment, mausoleum, entombment and cremation.

You are most sincerely welcome to visit here at any time, any day. Or, if you wish, you may call or write for our free brochure.

COMPARE YOUR HEAD OFF !

Put Valiant up against any car you've a mind to: the big ones, the bug ones, the kid brother ones. See if you can match the wallop and miserly thrift of Valiant's inclined engine—the family-of-six people room—the vacation-sized trunk room—the battery-saving alternator electrical system—the rust-proofed, rattle-proofed, fully unitized body—the smooth-as-a-millpond ride of Torsion-Aire. Go ahead. Match it if you can. After you've tried, see your Valiant dealer. He's got the real thing.

Illegal Signs Gone, Town Council Told

The Corte Madera Town Council last night received a Christmas present of sorts.

It was an announcement that two illegal directional signs advertising the Edgewater Inn and Bob's of Marin restaurant have been removed after months of wrangling.

Mayor Roger F. Morse thanked the respective proprietors, James Stockman and Bob Campbell, "for cooperating with us." The cooperation came two months after exasperated councilmen had asked Town Atty. John B. Ehlen to start legal proceedings for removal of the large signs.

Stockman and Campbell have asked that directional signs of a community nature replace the old ones and that the town pay part of the cost.

Proposed sites of the community signs will be inspected at 2 p.m. Saturday by Mayor Morse, Councilmen Edward W. Colthurst and Walter S. Long and Planning Commissioner Harold B. Wagstaff.

Also at last night's council meeting:

1. A report by ex-Town Engineer Frank Aitken was received from developer Frank Rusalem in support of the latter's claim the town owes him $3,313, payable in building permits, for earth fill he placed on the north side of Tamalpais drive in 1946. The matter was referred to Ehlen for report Jan. 4.
2. Town Manager Athur H. Brandow was authorized to write county supervisors a letter outlining council proposals for modification of the Corte Madera general plan. The letter will request a night hearing on the plan.
3. Installation of a dozen 2,500-lumen street lights on Staghound and Diamond Head passages in Mariners Cove, another at Redwood and Pixley avenues and three on Rocklyn court was authorized.
4. A petition by Rocklyn court residents for town acceptance and maintenance of their street was referred to Brandow.
5. Brandow was asked to prepare a resolution approving a mutual aid fire protection agreement with other municipal fire departments and districts.
6. Action on an ordinance requiring a written permit for erection of signs within the town was postponed to Jan. 4. The measure would exempt real estate signs of less than six square feet.

Talton Henry Nance, 50, Los Angeles, convicted there in 1937 of assault to commit a sexual crime.

Frank John Ryan, 47, Seattle, convicted of forgery, Los Angeles, 1939. He is now an Army master sergeant and holds a number of combat decorations.

The governor removed the condition of "without possibility of parole" from the sentence of Jack D. Green, Los Angeles, convicted of burglary and first degree murder there in 1932. Green's death sentence was commuted to life in prison by former Gov. James Rolph Jr. in 1934.

Convicts Who Escaped Camp Soon Recaptured

Two convicts, armed with knives, overpowered a guard at a San Quentin Prison camp in Mendocino County last night, stole two automobiles and made a brief escape.

Both were captured within two hours, however, and were lodged in the Mendocino County Jail at Ukiah to face new charges likely to add to their sentences.

The two are Henry Love, 25, received at San Quentin in August, 1958, to serve a term for grand theft from the person, and Robert Lynn Becker, 29, received from San Mateo County in May, 1956, to serve two concurrent terms for first degree robbery.

At 8:30 last night, armed with steak knives, they invaded the office of the prison's Chamberlain Creek forest camp, north of Ukiah. Threatening P. S. Shuffleton, the officer on duty, with the knives, they bound him, grabbed $60 in cash from the office and ran out.

Love drove away in Shuffleton's car. Becker took a state-owned station wagon.

Forty minutes later Shuffleton managed to free himself from his bonds. He notified Lt. Russell Becker, officer in charge of the camp. Lieutenant Becker put out an-points alarm. Road blocks were hastily set up.

At 9:45 p.m., Love was caught 10 miles from Willits on the Fort Bragg road. At 10:30 p.m., Becker was captured at Calpella, five miles north of Ukiah.

Both gave up without a struggle.

Nothing further was heard from the plane.

Gray's companions were Burrass Smith of Corte Madera and Carl Scott of San Francisco.

Trio Slightly Injured In Tiburon Crash

Five persons escaped serious injury last night in a two-car crash at the intersection of Tiburon and Trestle Glen boulevards west of Tiburon.

Nancy Jean Anthony, 21, of 81 Diane lane, Fairfax, driver, and her three 15-year-old passengers were taken by California Highway Patrol car and by a passing motorist to Marin General Hospital after the crash.

Treated at the hospital were: Judy Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ross, 36 Turnagain road, Kentfield, minor bruises; Norma Pirenian, daughter of Kaios Pirenian, 72 Heather way, Larkspur, cut on inside of upper lip, and Beverly Conley, daughter of James Conley, 17 Mohawk, Corte Madera, bump on the head.

The accident happened at 8:40 p.m. as the car driven by Miss Anthony collided with an auto driven by Lawrence Bogel, 18, of 6 Belle Vista, Belvedere, heading west on Tiburon boulevard, the CHP reported.

A recent survey by the National Industrial Conference Board shows that 58 per cent of all non-farm families in the homes, compared with 51 per cent 10 years ago.

Lombardi Voted NFL 'Coach Of The Year'

VINCE LOMBARDI
Voted top NFL coach

NEW YORK (AP)—Vinnie Lombardi, in his first year as head coach of the Green Bay Packers, today was voted coach of the year by National Football League writers in the annual Associated Press poll.

The 45-year-old tactician, who once served as Red Blaik's backfield coach at West Point, guided his team to a third-place tie in the Western Conference with seven victories against five defeats.

Lombardi took over a team which last year won only one game, lost 10 and tied one in Green Bay's poorest season in 40 years of professional football.

The little man with the build of a blacksmith steered his team to victories in its first three games. He was carried off the field by his players after their opening game triumph over the Chicago Bears.

Lombardi won in a landslide. He received 29 of the 37 votes cast with four votes going to Jim Lee Howell of the New York Giants and two each going to Weeb Ewbank of Baltimore and Red Hickey of San Francisco. Ewbank earned the award last year.

Lombardi took over as coach and general manager of the Packers last winter after five years as offensive coach with the Giants. He succeeded Ray (Scooter) McLain as head coach and Verne Lewellen as general manager.

Lombardi, who first gained attention in football as a guard at Fordham and was one of the "seven blocks of granite" in Fordham's glory days, made a remarkable metamorphosis at Green Bay. He revamped the team almost completely, instilled morale and buoyed up the spirit.

He traded for or acquired eight players from rival teams. He installed five rookies, and picked up two veterans who returned from the service.

Paul Hornung found himself under Lombardi. After two seasons as quarterback and fullback, the former Notre Dame All-America was switched to left halfback and became the key to Green Bay's offense. He led the league in scoring with 94 points. Lombardi also established Jim Taylor, a second-year man from LSU, as his regular fullback. The youngster proved a devastating runner after recovering from an injury.

Lamar McHan, who spent five undistinguished seasons toiling for the Chicago Cardinals, proved a first-rate quarterback for Lombardi. When McHan went sour, Vinnie switched to Bart Starr and the youngster turned in a fine job as signal caller and passer.

Hearing Slated On Bribe Try Charge

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A preliminary hearing was set for this afternoon for Dr. Edward H. Sebastian, Pittsburgh dentist charged with attempting to bribe two University of Pittsburgh basketball players.

Dr. Sebastian, former dental instructor at Pitt, was arrested yesterday following an investigation of statements by John Fridley, 20-year-old defensive star of the Pitt Panthers, and teammate Dick Falenski, 21, the team's leading scorer.

REPORT OFFER

Fridley and Falenski, both juniors, told university officials Dr. Sebastian offered them scholarships to Pitt's dental school, and to pay them 50 per cent of bet winnings if they would keep Pitt's victory margins within bet-winning range.

Dr. Sebastian denied the charges, saying, "everything we discussed, he (Fridley) started."

The investigation began Dec. 11 when Fridley and Falenski, on the advice of their parents, reported to University Athletic Director Frank Carver that they were offered a bribe.

MAKES PITCH

Fridley told detectives he met with Dr. Sebastian separately Dec. 3 and Dec. 9. He said Falenski was with him in a meeting Dec. 10, and that it was then Dr. Sabastian gave his pitch.

He "offered us the world—anything that came to his mind he said he'd get us—cars at cost and everything," Fridley said.

Falenski, who has been averaging 17 points a game, said:

"Our grades aren't up to snuff, but he said he'd fix everything—get us scholarships and guarantee we got into dental school."

Both players said they refused to have anything to do with the offer.

Elliott's Decision Will End Suspense At Cal

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Pete Elliott, handsome master of the drama of suspense, is headed for Illinois—despite a lack of announcement.

And when he goes, it is probable that all hands at California will heave a sigh of relief that it's over at last, even though they loved the 33-year-old so-called boy wonder of the coaching ranks.

For six months they have known that Elliott was under consideration to succeed Ray Eliot (no relation) as head coach of the Illini. But young Pete hasn't been able to make up his mind.

"It doesn't appear there is much chance to keep Pete here," says athletic director Greg Engelhard. "It's up to him to make the decision."

Chancellor Glenn T. Seaborg, who always has been close to athletics at the university, has kept in touch with Elliott throughout the negotiations.

"But I still don't know what Elliott will decide," says the prize-winning nuclear scientist.

Assistant coach Dee Andros is just as much in the dark.

"I wish he would make up his mind," Andros says. "We assistants don't know which way to turn."

Stanford And Santa Clara Lose On Tour

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Stanford and Santa Clara, both beaten yesterday, continue their invasion of the Midwest and East tonight.

Wisconsin put on a full court press and a game—ending stall last night to beat Stanford 61-60. In the final 18 seconds a Badger pass went astray, but the last of three desperate Indian field goal attempts from outside the circle missed as the gun sounded.

TOP SCORER

Guard John Arrilaga of Stanford made 25 points, almost twice as many as the top Badger, Robert Barneson, with 14. Stanford now has won 2 and lost 2.

Providence College put on a second half rally paced by Lenny Wilkins to nip Santa Clara 62-60. The Far Westerners were ahead 31-23 at halftime. Frank Sobrero of Santa Clara was high with 26 points. Wilkens has 17 points.

Jim Harnot—an Oakland lad playing for Providence, threw in a free shot with seven seconds to go.

COP WINS

College of the Pacific beat Idaho State 57-55 in a defensive battle. Ken Stanley, COP guard, hit a jump shot from 15 feet out with six seconds left to play.

Oregon was too much for San Jose State, 56-41 at Eugene. San Jose limited Glenn Moore to four points. Until this game Moore had a 22.6 average.

Pasadena Nazarene College beat Chico State 92-68.

San Jose State plays a repeat performance at Oregon tonight, Hawaii is at Southern Cal and Chico State is at Long Beach State.

Rickey Urges Texas Cities To Join Loop

DALLAS (AP)—Branch Rickey, the patriarch of baseball, has told Dallas and Fort Worth the Continental League, which he heads, is their only chance at the major leagues.

He proclaimed the aims and objectives of the third big league at a luncheon of 200 business and civic leaders of the area yesterday, then said he would wait for them to raise the money that would make Dallas-Fort Worth the seventh club of the Continental League.

But the time is short, he warned. The Continental must have its eight clubs by Jan. 10. Dallas-Fort Worth, Montreal and Buffalo are the cities from which the seventh and eighth clubs will come.

Rickey, 56 years in the big leagues, said the American and National Leagues would never expand. "It never was intended," he declared, in pointing out harrassing actions of the majors which he said were designed to prevent the Continental getting off the ground.

But, he added, the big leagues had finally been forced to announce they would not expand. And that paved the way for the Continental to make its move.

Colts, Giants In Workouts For Title Tilt

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Baltimore Colts returned to the practice field after a two-day rest today to prepare for their National Football League championship game here Sunday with the New York Giants.

Most of Baltimore seems more concerned with the rematch of last year's sudden-death Colt victory than with Christmas.

Everyone is giving opinions or making predictions. Joe Tereshinski, who scouted both teams for the Washington Redskins, got in the act Monday by rating the Colts a slight choice.

Meanwhile, the Giants began their final week of preparations for the game today on a frozen, snow-crusted Yankee Stadium turf happy with the fact that halfback Alex Webster is expected to be at full strength for the game.

Webster has been suffering from a bruised back that kept him out of the final game against Washington. He was the only regular in questionable shape for the battle with the Western Conference champions.

Cohn Seeking License To Stage Fight

NEW YORK (AP)—Roy Cohn was ready to make his big pitch today before the New York State Athletic Commission for a license to promote the return Ingemar Johansson-Floyd Patterson heavyweight championship fight.

At the moment, Cohn has the field pretty much to himself. He has bought out Vincent Vellella's controlling interest in Rosensohn Enterprises, which holds the return bout contracts. He shelled out —with the help of his 10-man syndicate—$150,000 for the two-thirds interest.

He hopes to buy out Bill Rosensohn's other one-third interest before long.

49ers Sign 12 Young Players For Next Year

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Twelve young players have been signed to 1960 contracts, the San Francisco 49ers announced today.

Included on the list are four players drafted at the Nov. 30 NFL meeting; two rookies who barely missed making the 1959 squad; five so-called "red shirts" from previous drafts, and one free agent.

The new draftees signed are:

Ola Murchison, College of Pacific end-linebackers, sixth draft choice.

Bob Wasden, Auburn, end-linebacker, ninth choice.

Jim (Stem) Williams, 260-pound tackle from North Carolina College, 12th choice.

Carl Robinson, 250-pound tackle from South Carolina State, 18th choice.

Dan Colchico, San Jose State, seventh choice; Lew Akin, end, Vanderbilt, eighth choice; Dee Mackey, East Texas State, drafted 24th in 1958; Ron Warzeka, Montana State College, drafted 14th in 1957; Paul Tripp, Idaho State, 22nd choice in 1957.

The free agent signed was Fred Williamson, offensive end from Northwestern.

Rookies from the 1959 team who were cut from the squad and who will get another chance are Mike Dukes, Clemson, and Tom Osborne, Hastings.

Hoyt Wilhelm First To Top Both Big Leagues In ERA

CHICAGO (UPI)—Knuckleballer Hoyt Wilhelm of the Baltimore Orioles today officially became the only pitcher in history ever to compile the top earned run average in both the American and National Leagues.

The 36-year-old Wilhelm won his first earned run title with the New York Giants in 1952 with a 2.43 mark. And he was the best in the American League last season with a 2.19 percentage, according to official averages released here by the Howe News Bureau.

Wilhelm, who had a 15-11 record last season, yielded only 55 earned runs in 226 innings to beat out runner-up Camilo Pascual of Washington. Pascual had a 2.64 earned run mark and a 17-10 record.

Bob Shaw of the White Sox finished third with 2.69, Art Ditmar of the Yankees fourth with 2.90 and Jerry Walker of the Orioles fifth with 2.92. All five are right-handers, but the sixth leading pitcher was southpaw Billy O'Dell, recently traded by Baltimore to San Francisco. O'Dell had a 2.94 average.

Shaw's record of 18-6 gave him a won-lost percentage of .750, best in the circuit. Cal McLish of Cleveland was runner-up in that department with a 19-8 record for .704.

Veteran Early Wynn of the White Sox, who collected 22 victories and suffered 10 defeats, was the league's only 20-game winner. Wynn had a 3.16 earned run average, pitched the most innings, 256, and tied Detroit's Paul Foytack for the most starts, 37. Wynn also gave up the most bases on balls, 119.

The 36-year-old Wilhelm won his first earned run title with the New York Giants in 1952 with a 2.43 mark. And he was the best in the American League last season with a 2.19 percentage, according to official averages released here by the Howe News Bureau.

Wilhelm, who had a 15-11 record last season, yielded only 55 earned runs in 226 innings to beat out runner-up Camilo Pascual of Washington. Pascual had a 2.64 earned run mark and a 17-10 record.

Bob Shaw of the White Sox finished third with 2.69, Art Ditmar of the Yankees fourth with 2.90 and Jerry Walker of the Orioles fifth with 2.92. All five are right-handers, but the sixth leading pitcher was southpaw Billy O'Dell, recently traded by Baltimore to San Francisco. O'Dell had a 2.94 average.

Shaw's record of 18-6 gave him a won-lost percentage of .750, best in the circuit. Cal McLish of Cleveland was runner-up in that department with a 19-8 record for .704.

Veteran Early Wynn of the White Sox, who collected 22 victories and suffered 10 defeats, was the league's only 20-game winner. Wynn had a 3.16 earned run average, pitched the most innings, 256, and tied Detroit's Paul Foytack for the most starts, 37. Wynn also gave up the most bases on balls, 119.

Two Classes Of Grid Coaches In L. A.—Champs And Chumps

CONNOLLY

The coaching racket in Southern California is made up of two classes . . . champs and chumps.

If you're not one, you must be the other.

Sid Gillman, coach of the Rams who was asked to resign, couldn't get along with his players. That isn't hard to understand when you consider that the owners of the Rams can't get along with one another.

Dan Clark, youthful coach of the USC varsity, walks off the job to enter business with his brother.

The newspapers in L.A. played up Clark's resignation in the same stud horse type that marked the start of World War II.

Stories of why he quit: what forced him to quit; why he did it so suddenly, was front page copy for two solid days. Don's resignation threw President Eisenhower off the front page and into small type.

USC didn't dilly dally much about picking a successor to Clark. They just moved up one of his assistants or else everybody in the coaching racket would have been mentioned to succeed him.

But that is the new order in athletics, either pro or collegiate.

The head coach is no longer the head football man. He's just the figure-head on the field. Most of the policies are handled by either the president or the manager of athletics.

Baseball is getting to be the same.

It used to be in the old days that a manager of a ball club selected his players, signed them to a contract, fined or suspended them . . . in other words ran the whole show.

But no longer.

Fred Haney, who quit the management of the Milwaukee Braves to go into the broadcasting business, has had several settos with the old gang. He makes no bones about baseball changing with the times. Some of his old cronies say he quit because he couldn't, or wouldn't play second fiddle to his players, regardless of how important they were.

One story is that Johnny Logan, when told to lay down a bunt, would purposely foul 'em off until he finally had to hit. When Fred chided him about it he was supposed to have said, "Well, if you don't like it trade me. You had nothing to do with signing me anyhow."

Playing managers in baseball have a tough job today. The hardest of all is getting along with players.

The players feel if they have a "beef" coming, they ought to go to the head man, the general manager. Not the field manager such as Haney was at Milwaukee.

Haney's cronies say Fred would have traded off, or sold five of his players, if he had been in charge during 1960. That is how he felt toward some of the players.

Professional sports of all kinds, one of these days, will be controlled by unions. And when they do the unions will insist on the field manager running the ball club and not the business agent.

Meanwhile, if anybody is thinking of coaching sports in L.A. let him classify himself as a CHAMP OR A CHUMP.

This year proved it down there.

Bears Remain Fourth In Cage Ratings

NEW YORK (UPI)—Cincinnati remained No. 1 in United Press International's major college basketball ratings today for the third straight week, but West Virfginia replaced Ohio State in second place.

Ohio State slipped to third while California remained fourth. St. Louis was fifth, Utah sixth, Bradley seventh, Georgia Tech eighth, Kansas ninth and Indiana 10th.

Georgia Tech, moving up from 12th, and Indiana, which advanced from 11th, were the newcomers in the top 10. North Carolina dropped from fifth to 11th and Southern California slipped from 10th to 11th in the latest balloting by the UPI board of coaches.

The 35 leading coaches who rate the major schools for UPI based their latest votes on games played through Saturday night, Dec. 19. The top four teams boasted perfect records through that date.

North Carolina headed the second 10 group. Kentucky, New York University, Michigan State and Notre Dame rounded out the first 20 in that order.

Cuban Ring Sensation In TV Bout

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Cuba's Luis Rodriguez, who may be the best welterweight contender in the world, will get chance to present his case tomorrow night.

The unbeaten, 22-year-old boxer-puncher, now ranked the No. 2 challenger to welterweight champion Don Jordan, faces slick Sugar Hart of Philadelphia in a television (ABC, 7 p.m. PST) 10-rounder at the Miami Beach, Fal. auditorium.

Rodriguez (24-0) has swept past Rudell Stitch, Larry Baker and Isaac Logart in his last three fights. Seventeen months ago in Havana he stopped Charley Scott in nine rounds and today Scott is ranked top contender. Scott, however, is due for a demotion following his upset loss to Benny "Kid" Paret last Friday night.

It was the same Scott who scored a ninth round technical knockout over Hart at Philadelphia last Oct. 19. Scott became the No. 1 contender, and Hart, who had been first, was dropped to third behind Rodriguez. Hart's record is 28-4-2.

HIS TOE MAY BE NEEDED—Karl Holzwarth, the Wisconsin Badger tackle with the scoring toe, works at his specialty with quarterback Dale Hackbart holding as the team held its first day of California practice for the Rose Bowl in Pasadena yesterday. The Badgers meet Washington in the New Year's Day game. (AP Wirephoto)

Rose Bowl Game May Turn Out To Be Defensive Battle

LONG BEACH (UPI) — For a game that features two headline-grabbing quarterbacks — Bob Schloredt of Washington and Dale Hackbart of Wisconsin—the Jan. 1 Rose Bowl just might be a defensive battle between two energetic lines.

Using knowledge from game films, Owens and his staff worked at setting up defenses against the big 10 Badgers.

Washington, which turned down a chance to work indoors yesterday at a pier building at Long Beach harbor, will go through a scrimmage Thursday to put its newly acquired knowledge of the Badger attack to test.

It will be the Huskies' first full contact drill since arriving from Seattle last Frday.

After yesterday's two-hour session, the team toured Revue motion picture studios and dined on prime rib at Lawry's on Los Angeles' "Restaurant Row."

Fish-Game Boss Never Runs Short Of Words

SACRAMENTO (AP)—William Warne left the newspaper game in 1935 and entered public service. But he hasn't forgotten how to use words.

In fact, as Gov. Brown's fish and game director, he's probably writing as many words as he ever did as a newspaperman. Only now his words are speeches, not newspaper stories.

For sheer volume of words, Warne probably holds the record in the Brown administration.

His speeches are about birds, fish and animals, none of which can talk at all. They're directed at humans—all of whom seem to have plenty to say about birds, fish and animals: whether they should be killed or not, and if they should be killed, how many, and by what method, of which sex, and at what age?

There's not only the problem of whether or how to kill birds, fish and animals. There are questions of whether or how they should be bred, penned, planted, tagged, eaten, fattened or starved.

STORMY MEETINGS

If you haven't attended a meeting of the State Fish and Game Commission — whose meetings are open to the public—you might be surprised at the violence of opinions people hold on these subjects.

When Warne came in as fish and game director he quickly learned how every action of the department seemed to meet quick and vocal criticism. And the reaction is funneled through well-organized groups, equipped with lawyers and public relations men, fairly voluble people themselves.

They not only spout opinions about birds, fish and animals, they have convictions about humans. Should they be taxed, charged, licensed, regulated, ignored, investigated, jailed, allowed to make a profit, impoverished or psychoanalyzed?

Warne has been going about the state talking to everybody. He isn't agreeing with everybody, but he apparently feels that if he just talks to enough people maybe some of their differences will disappear.

FAMILY LOSES HOME IN PRE-CHRISTMAS FIRE

Sausalito firemen are seen subduing quick blaze that did $20,000 damage yesterday to home of Arie Sikkerveer at 65 Upper Crescent avenue, and left, family including three children homeless for Christmas. Mrs. Evelia Solis, 45, housekeeper, led the three tots to safety. They were taken to the home of grandparents subsequently. The parents were absent when the blaze started in the master bedroom. Asst. Chief John Terris, Fireman Leonard Jucich and volunteer John Rocha were overcome by fumes from a burst gas line while fighting the blaze. (George Wheeler photo)

Firehouse Site Yule Present To San Rafael

The San Rafael City Council last night gratefully accepted a "Christmas" gift of 16,000 square feet of land for a new firehouse near the Professional Parkway across from Terra Linda.

Playing the Santa Claus role was Harry Heifetz of Commonwealth Development Co., who offered the lot free, "with no strings attached."

The lot is located within a commercial subdivision planned by Heifetz along a frontage road on the east side of Highway 101. It is about 600 to 800 feet from the proposed Terra Linda interchange, making it ideal for serving both sides of Highway 101.

"I believe it is a very generous offer," said Mayor John F. McInnis. He asked the city clerk to write Heifetz and his company a letter of thanks.

Councilman Louis H. Baar, member of the fire commission, said that the commission would like to name the new firehouse in honor of the late Councilman Joseph Sauer.

OLD SAN RAFAEL ISSUE

Council Again Debates New City Hall Need

Should San Rafael build a new city hall in a new location, or should the present building be expanded?

This old question again took the spotlight briefly at last night's city council meeting.

It arose when City Clerk W. L. Morgan asked $3,000 for remodeling and expansion of washroom facilities in the city hall. He reported the women's washroom is grossly inadequate.

Councilman Fred E. Jensen proposed that before such money is spent, the city should decide once and for all between buying a new site or expanding the present hall. Jensen said he favors expanding the present building.

Councilman Charles W. Aby urged the city to look around for larger area for a new structure. Expansion would only aggravate parking congestion, he said.

Mayor John F. McInnis asked the city manager's office to gather information about city hall needs for the council.

City Clerk Morgan noted: "We need something now, not six months from now." Morgan said he and Building Inspector Clifford Monk had drawn up these plans:

The men's washroom and the women's washroom on the upperf loor would be swapped, to give the women's facilities more space. The one washroom downstairs would be remodeled for women, and a men's washroom added.

The city fathers agreed to call for bids on the remodeling job at the Jan. 4 meeting.

FOURTH FIRM HIKES SAVINGS INTEREST RATE

Northwestern Savings and Loan Assn. directors announced today that interest paid depositors will jump from 4 to 4½ per cent on Jan. 1, making this decision unanimous among Marin Savings and loan firms.

Marin County's three other savings and loan concerns had already announced intention to go to the 4½ per cent rate, following a lead of San Francisco companies.

3 Marines To Finish Training In Combat

2 Terra Linda Groups Unite On Annexation

The two feuding factions of Terra Linda have apparently buried the hatchet in an effort to act in unison.

There was no controversy last night, as San Rafael city fathers "tabled" the original petition for annexation filed with the city on Oct. 5. This petition asked for annexation of about one-half of the developed area of Terra Linda.

Now the city will await a new petition calling for annexation of all Terra Linda, thus avoiding a split through the middle of the community.

Frank Zerga, representing the original petitioners for annexation of one-half the area, and Donald G. Black, who at one time led the opposition by calling for incorporation, were the only spokesmen present at the council meeting. They appeared satisfied with the council action.

San Anselmo Home Looted; Loss $986

The San Anselmo home of Harry J. Mack, executive secretary of the Marin branch of the American Cancer Society, was looted yesterday of jewelry and a transistor radio valued at $986.

Mack left his home at 121 Humboldt avenue at 9 a.m. leaving the front door unlocked. When he returned home at 3:30 p.m. the door was locked, he reported. Forty-five minutes later he noticed the jewelry box and radio were missing from the bedroom dresser and called police.

The white leather jewelry box emblazoned with gold and black engravings contained five 14-karat gold rings, two pairs of golf cuff links and a tie clasp, said Mack.

Most of the items are insured, said Mack, but they are of great sentimental value. Two of the rings belonged to Mack's wife, who died in 1946.

NO COMMENT ON CENSURE BY TAM BOARD

Tamalpais Union High School District trustees last night acknowledged without comment receipt of copies of a Marin County Grand Jury report censuring them for "propagandizing" students and using school equipment in promoting a tax increase election last February.

The grand jury accused the school district of violating state laws in its tax hike campaign, and censured "all those who are engaged therein or who are responsible for such conduct."

Moving Target

BRONSON, Kan. (AP)—A mother wren built a nest between the battery and the tool box on Melvin Stewart's tractor. Even when Stewart used the machine, the mother bird stayed near the nest, often remaining on it, until the eggs hatched.

Then she went in search of food and flew after the tractor as it made its rounds, coming in on target to feed her young.

FAMILY LOSES HOME IN PRE-CHRISTMAS FIRE

Sausalito firemen are seen subduing quick blaze that did $20,000 damage yesterday to home of Arie Sikkerveer at 65 Upper Crescent avenue, and left, family including three children homeless for Christmas. Mrs. Evelia Solis, 45, housekeeper, led the three tots to safety. They were taken to the home of grandparents subsequently. The parents were absent when the blaze started in the master bedroom. Asst. Chief John Terris, Fireman Leonard Jucich and volunteer John Rocha were overcome by fumes from a burst gas line while fighting the blaze. (George Wheeler photo)

Firehouse Site Yule Present To San Rafael

The San Rafael City Council last night gratefully accepted a "Christmas" gift of 16,000 square feet of land for a new firehouse near the Professional Parkway across from Terra Linda.

Playing the Santa Claus role was Harry Heifetz of Commonwealth Development Co., who offered the lot free, "with no strings attached."

The lot is located within a commercial subdivision planned by Heifetz along a frontage road on the east side of Highway 101. It is about 600 to 800 feet from the proposed Terra Linda interchange, making it ideal for serving both sides of Highway 101.

"I believe it is a very generous offer," said Mayor John F. McInnis. He asked the city clerk to write Heifetz and his company a letter of thanks.

Councilman Louis H. Baar, member of the fire commission, said that the commission would like to name the new firehouse in honor of the late Councilman Joseph Sauer.

NOVATO GIRL BRIDE-ELECT

The engagement of Angelina R. Leonard to William J. Kiker has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Everett of Novato.

Angie, a second generation Californian, attends Novato High School. She also is a student of commercial art outside of her daily student activities. She has been taking the course for three years, and soon will graduate. She has won many awards for her art work.

William is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Terry Kiker of Faribault, Minn. A graduate of Faribault High School, he recently terminated a four year enlistment with the United States Air Force. At present he is employed by Reliance Enterprises of Santa Rosa.

The couple has no definite wedding plans.

Fairfax Women's Club Has Christmas Party

Fairfax Women's Club held its Christmas party recently. Following a brief business session conducted by Mrs. C. W. Carle, president, a luncheon was served in a festive setting. The ice cream was topped with lighted red candles. On the serving committee were Mesdames Floyd Elliott, Harold Druhan, Alfred E. Frerichs, John T. Fitzhenry, Sidney Foy and Frank E. Duley.

Don't let Christmas greens and wrappings accumulate in the basement or garage after use. Fire departments advise burning them, a few at a time.

Exchange Student Tells Of Holiday Tradition In Norway

There is much old tradition connected with Christmas in Norway. A great deal of playing of games and singing of songs around the Christmas tree. The celebration begins Christmas Eve morning—the First day of Christmas—continuing all day and all night into Christmas Day, the Second Day of Christmas.

In Kjeld's home town a generations old tradition is still carried on to this day by the children. It may be compared in idea to the American trick or treat—similar only, in that the children wear masks, identical Santa Claus masks and go to the homes for holiday treats saying, "Glade Yule"—Merry Christmas.

Mrs. Witzel's kindergarten students sang, "Silent Night" in Norwegian to Kjeld.

Other music was furnished by the Lu Sutton Women's Chorus, led by Mrs. Robert Kone and accompanied by Mrs. Ruth Cook, fourth grade teacher at Lu Sutton. This group sang "The Angels" with Mrs. Melba French as soloist.

The Lu Sutton Glee Club led by Miss Maria Silva, sang several traditional carols.

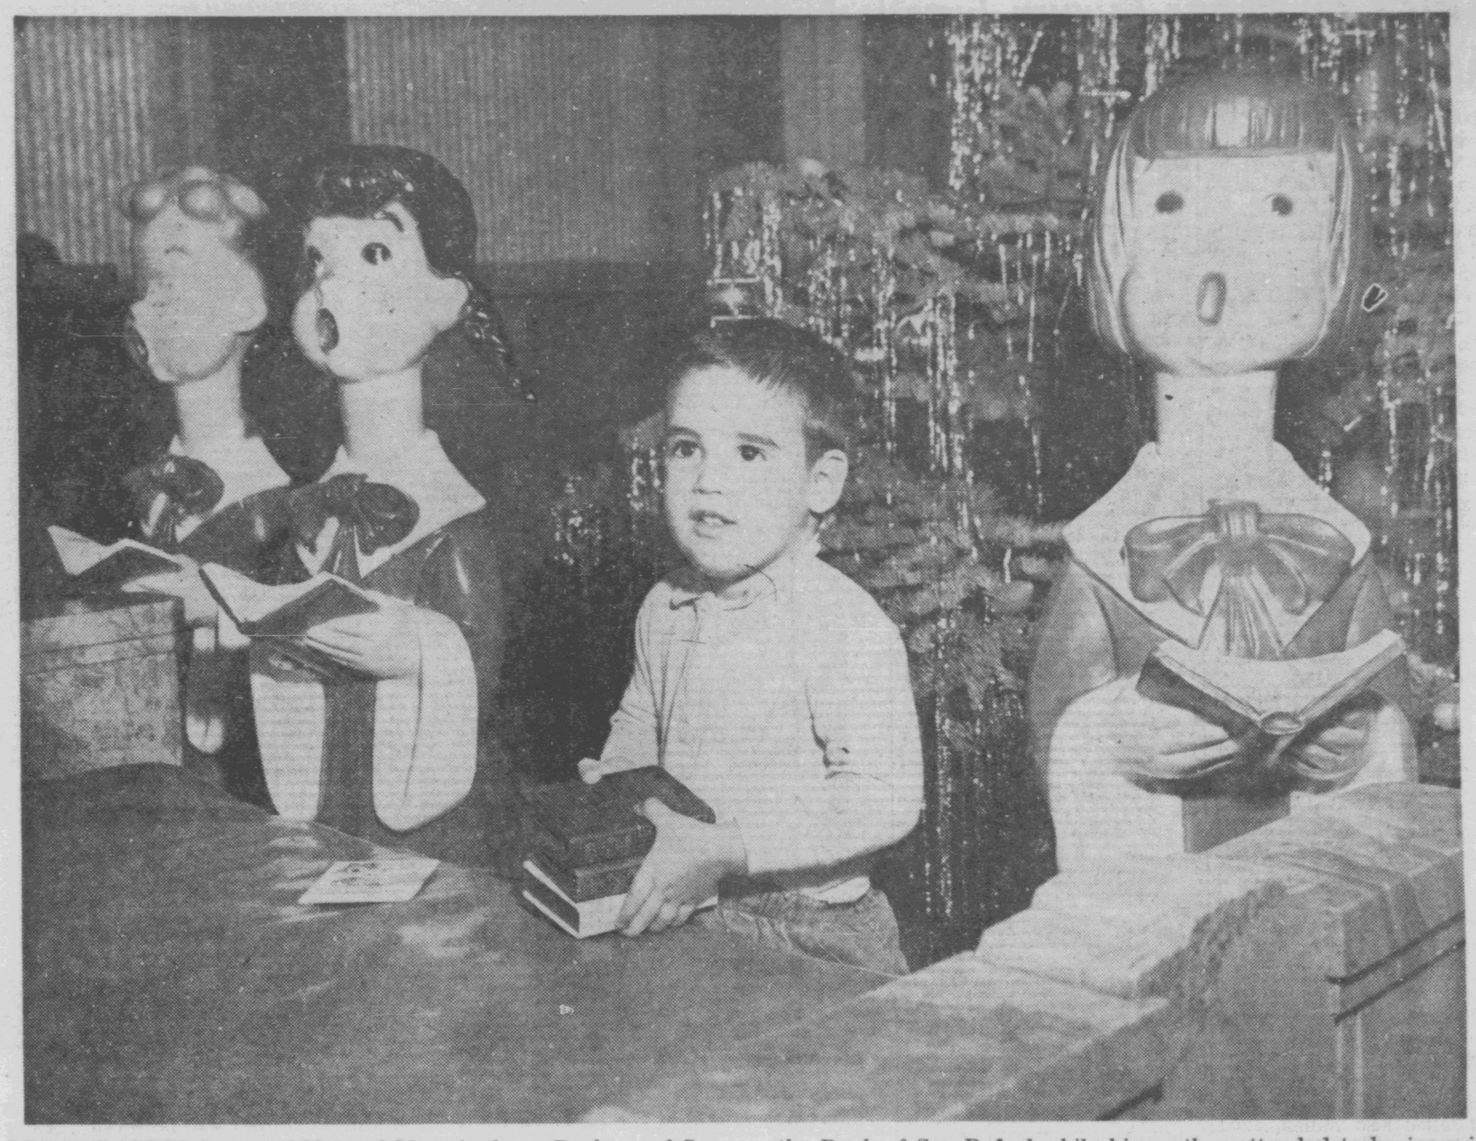

Another treat for the children attending the program was a Christmas story ready by Mrs. Charles Lavaroni.

Moist Fruit Cake

For a rich, moist fruit cake, do not set oven temperature too high and do not over-bake. A two-pound fruit cake in a pound coffee can should bake at 300 degrees for two and a half hours. A one-pound cake takes two an a half hours at 250 degrees. Individual cakes baked in muffin pans take 30 minutes in a 250-degree oven.

Host Of Holiday Gatherings Are Held In Mill Valley

Last week was a busy one in Mill Valley socially, with a number of holiday gatherings planned for friends, neighbors and out-of-town guests.

Wednesday the Donn Bolthouses entertained 40 guests at a cocktail party, and Friday 30 were invited for potables and hors d'oeuvres at the home of the Samuel Swadeshes.

Mrs. Edmond Mahon gave a luncheon Saturday for 12 guests that included Mesdames Frederick Fellows, B. L. McCormick, Robert Moore and A. A. Johnson, all of Mill Valley.

Also entertaining Saturday at cocktail parties were the Robert M. Clarkes, with 50 guests invited honoring Mrs. Margaret Wright of Honolulu, Mr. Clarke's mother; and Mrs. Elinor Dickson Sanborn, whose guests were Messrs. and Mesdame Richard Hearn, L. G. (Jerry) Johnson, Ronald Currie, Robert Verran, Ronald Day, Bruce Butte and Col. and Mrs. C. I. Dennis, all of Mill Valley; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Overacker of Tiburon; and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cox and Mrs. Rita Keenan of San Rafael.

The previous weekend Mrs. Sanborn's daughter, Mrs. Virginia Sanborn Batson of San Francisco entertained 40 guests at a similar party in her mother's home.

On both Friday and Saturday nights the John K. Blooms had a dinner party for 10 guests.

Sunday some 30 friends attended an open house at the home of the Philip Heymans, and the John C. Wells were hosts at a Tom and Jerry party for 20 neighbors and friends.

Also on Sunday were the parties at the John Crains, who invited 25 to meet Mr. Crain's mother, Mrs. J. William Crain of Carmel; at the George Turnbulls, a second of two cocktail buffets for 20 guests each; and at the Harry Closes, who invited friends to meet the Frederick Franklins of New Jersey.

Today Mrs. Edward Johnson is hostess at a luncheon for eight friends, Mesdames Earl Marsh, Rodney Hartman, Chester Dennis, Alvin Baukol, John Buckley, William Pemberton and Selwyn Kempthorne.

St. Patrick's Guild Has Christmas Party

More than 70 women in the Larkspur-Corte Madera area enjoyed the recent Christmas party of St. Patrick's Ladies' Guild.

A play "Christmas Sock," was presented by the Drama Group, composed of Mesdames Rudy Mullins, L. S. Arntz, Arthur Lucchetti, Al Lubamersky, Eugene Byrnes Jr., Herbert Neal and Frances Casey.

After the opening prayer by the pastor, the Rev. James Healy, a large group of carolers sang Christmas songs. Refreshments were served at beautifully decorated tables. Pirate Bingo was played and gifts distributed.

Mayan Art

New eyeglass frames borrow styling from ancient Mayan art. Made of aluminum, they have swept-around end pieces. Hand engraving provides a four-tone effect.

NOVATO GIRL BRIDE-ELECT

The engagement of Angelina R. Leonard to William J. Kiker has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Everett of Novato.

Angie, a second generation Californian, attends Novato High School. She also is a student of commercial art outside of her daily student activities. She has been taking the course for three years, and soon will graduate. She has won many awards for her art work.

William is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Terry Kiker of Faribault, Minn. A graduate of Faribault High School, he recently terminated a four year enlistment with the United States Air Force. At present he is employed by Reliance Enterprises of Santa Rosa.

The couple has no definite wedding plans.

Fairfax Women's Club Has Christmas Party

Fairfax Women's Club held its Christmas party recently. Following a brief business session conducted by Mrs. C. W. Carle, president, a luncheon was served in a festive setting. The ice cream was topped with lighted red candles. On the serving committee were Mesdames Floyd Elliott, Harold Druhan, Alfred E. Frerichs, John T. Fitzhenry, Sidney Foy and Frank E. Duley.

The members sang Christmas songs with Mrs. Louis Condrotte playing the piano accompaniment. Then a jolly, laughing Santa (Mrs. Volmer Anderson) entered the room and distributed the gifts assisted by Mrs. Fitzhenry.

Burn Them

Don't let Christmas greens and wrappings accumulate in the basement or garage after use. Fire departments advise burning them, a few at a time.

Exchange Student Tells Of Holiday Tradition In Norway

There is much old tradition connected with Christmas in Norway. A great deal of playing of games and singing of songs around the Christmas tree. The celebration begins Christmas Eve morning—the First day of Christmas—continuing all day and all night into Christmas Day, the Second Day of Christmas.

In Kjeld's home town a generations old tradition is still carried on to this day by the children. It may be compared in idea to the American trick or treat—similar only, in that the children wear masks, identical Santa Claus masks and go to the homes for holiday treats saying, "Glade Yule"—Merry Christmas.

Mrs. Witzel's kindergarten students sang, "Silent Night" in Norwegian to Kjeld.

Other music was furnished by the Lu Sutton Women's Chorus, led by Mrs. Robert Kone and accompanied by Mrs. Ruth Cook, fourth grade teacher at Lu Sutton. This group sang "The Angels" with Mrs. Melba French as soloist.

The Lu Sutton Glee Club led by Miss Maria Silva, sang several traditional carols.

Another treat for the children attending the program was a Christmas story ready by Mrs. Charles Lavaroni.

Moist Fruit Cake

For a rich, moist fruit cake, do not set oven temperature too high and do not over-bake. A two-pound fruit cake in a pound coffee can should bake at 300 degrees for two and a half hours. A one-pound cake takes two an a half hours at 250 degrees. Individual cakes baked in muffin pans take 30 minutes in a 250-degree oven.

Girls Can Wear Luxury Furs And Not Be Out One Penny

NEW YORK (UPI) — A New York furrier this week announced a plan by which we girls can wear luxury furs—and not be out a penny.

It's the man who pays, in rental fees, to provide us with a mink, ermine, sable or Russian broadtail wrap for a night on the town.

The idea for furs on borrowed time belongs to Milton C. Herman, who for years, to build good will, has lent coats, capes and stoles without cost to celebrities and socialites.

All the man does is send his date a card which diplomatically informs her that she can pick up the fur of her choice at Herman's, or else have it delivered.

Stoles and jackets rent for $25 to $50 for 24 hours; coats range from $50 to $100, depending on the type of fur. A full-length tourmaline mink, for instance, brings the highest rate. But Herman said rental includes insurance coverage, and cost of cleaning after each borrowing.

"I just feel this is a good way to advertise as well as create good feeling," said the furrier of his Cinderella-for-a-night plan. "And who knows, the guy might wind up marrying the girl and buying her the coat for a wedding present."

It's been a big year for feet of all sizes. A spokesman for the shoe industry estimated total leather shoe production for 1959 at the all-time high of 642 million pairs. Consumer spending totalled $4.3 billion, 200 million dollars more than last year.

Harold Gessner, chairman of the board of the National Shoe Institute, said there was a 12 per cent increase in production of women's shoes alone, because of promotion of costume coordination and the extensive use of color.

Gessner said that in feminine footwear the biggest trend in the new year will be the revival of the open toe, but not like its sister of pre-war and wartime years. It will be built on a slender last, with elongated shape to give the foot a slim look.

In closed toes, the pump will remain the best seller, he said, with more oval and square toes joining the established pointed toe.

Now the alarm watch joins the alarm clock in trying to prod us into promptness. The bell-ringer comes from the Swiss watchmakers, who see it fitting handily into the life of the working woman, reminding her like a string around the finger of appointments.

New bands to coordinate with a woman's costume also come from the Swiss. One maker features a slip-on watch (it slides onto the band, instead of being hitched at either side) and a choice of four bands with the purchase, in silk, satin, alligator or kid. The fabric bands come in 15 colors including lavender, rose, taupe and turquoise, the leather, in 24.

To Rate With Girls, Give Pearls

Any kind of jewelry is all right for Christmas — just so it's pearls.

That's the word from the jewelry industry, whose members say they've never seen a season when pearls of all kinds, shapes and sizes, big and little, real and fake, have been in such demand.

Perhaps it's because this is a season when femininity and elegance have reached an all-time high — and pearls always have been favorites with great ladies, starting with Cleopatra, who not only wore them but is said to have swallowed them.

For Christmas giving and wearing, pearls are appearing in new sizes, shapes, finishes and colors, in new combinations and dramatic designs. Colored pearls are important in the holiday picture, ranging from fabulous cultured or oriental black pearls to costume pearls in tones of sable, smoke, jade, sapphire, burgundy, amber and gold. Often two or more shades of a color are blended for an effect of color gradation that is subtle and effective.

There are new finishes for costume pearls that would astonish an oyster. They range from a simulated cultured pearl finish to a dazzling white. Some pearls have a dull metallic gleam, and others a silky sheen.

As to sizes, you may choose anything from tiny seed pearls in multiple strands to jumbo pearls the size of marbles. There are many shapes, also—round, oval or flat.

Women Golfers Have Christmas Luncheon Friday

Two Christmas trees, one eight feet tall decorated with Christmas cards, and another trimmed in traditional style, were the focal points of decor for the Mill Valley Women's Golf Club's luncheon Friday afternoon.

Making the clubhouse exceptionally festive were white manzanita branches a-glitter with gold ornaments suspended from the ceiling. The white and gold theme was also carried out in table centerpieces by Mrs. Harry Diner and her assistants, Mesdames Mervyn Mazza and Glen Paulsen.

The party was planned by Mrs. J. D. Harrison with Mrs. E. M. Tobin in charge of refreshments, assisted by Mesdames Ronald Brindley and Alex Almcrants.

For entertainment the group sang carols led by Mrs. Hugh Richardson and accompanied on the accordion and piano by Mrs. Melvin G. Moore.

The Swing Club prize donated by Mesdames John Broman and Irving Hansen was won by Mrs. Philip Schafer.

Club members were greeted in a telegram from Mrs. Edward Ryan, a former member who has moved to Nevada City.

Winners at bridge played during the remainder of the afternoon were Mesdames Harrison, first; G. F. Conzelman, second; Richardson, third; and Tobin, consolation.

Winners of the monthly bridge tournament were Mesdames Eugene Halm and William F. Poole, first; Mervyn and Clay Lilleston, second; and Mark Smith and Joseph Zuboff, third.

Mrs. Lou Long chairman, announced that the next duplicate tournament will start Jan. 4 at 10 a.m., at the clubhouse.

For her wedding the bride wore a gown of white Chantilly lace which had a chapel train. The fitted bodice was designed with a scalloped neckline and long sleeves. A cap of the same lace held the bride's veil and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Dance Group Mark Season With Party

The group, under the direction of Mrs. Bobbie Moore, held their Christmas party in the Parish hall of the Holy Innocents Episcopal Church of Corte Madera.

Dance games were enjoyed by the children, as well as refreshments and a grab bag. The children were in charge of refreshments with Janet Mauch as chairman and Roxanne Lee, co-chairman. The party also honored Miss Lee who was celebrating her birthday. Clean-up chairman was Sam Walker, with Tony Crowe assisting.

Assisting Mrs. Moore as chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. John Dale Friend, Mr. and Mrs. John Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Berry.

Wise Old Owl Was Santa's Aide

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI) — Once upon a fable, a Great White Owl and his little friend, a cherub, replaced Santa Claus in the hearts of boys and girls.

The legend, of German extraction, is all but lost in antiquity.

Pieced together by Mrs. LaVaughn Wangler, curator of the Hallmark Historical Collection, the story goes that a "darling cherub" up in the sky thought he'd try to make little folks on earth rejoice with him at Jesus' birth.

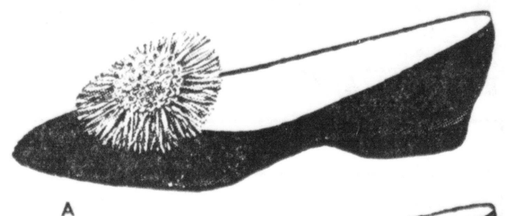

The cherub gathered a quantity of toys (where he got them wasn't made clear) and piled them into the moon.

He then called on a friend, the Great, White Owl, to pull the moon, much as reindeer pull Santa's sleigh. Winging down to earth with owl, the cherub then dispensed his toys to girls and boys.

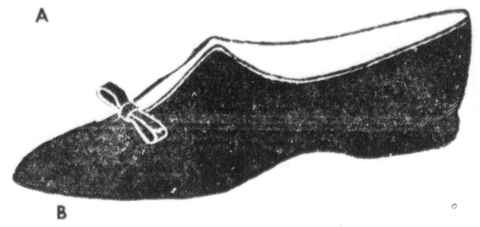

The legend persisted until late in the 19th century, and gained some popularity in America, Mrs. Wangler said. Early American cards, in the 1880's, pictured the huge owl pulling the moon, cherub and toys.

State Spending Critic Has His Say If Anyone Listens

This is the time of year when dream programs of state agencies come under scrutiny by a man paid to be critical. And often he pricks a balloon or two.

A. Alan Post is known as the state's legislative analyst. One of his jobs is to look at what various governmental departments want to spend money for and to analyze what he finds. At this time of year the Joint Legislative Budget Committee is going over proposed budgets of state agencies—and Mr. Post is having his say.

For example, last week he ripped into the state's new conservation camp program as being little more than small prisons spread around the countryside. He declared that a 1000-man conservation center in Lassen County would in fact provide conservation work for only 100 men, with the others involved in vocational and academic education programs and 175 of them used for plant maintenance.

Post lashed out at growing bureaucracy in the new Fair Employment Practices Commission, charging it was attempting to exceed its authority by entering into education and research programs not specified in the enabling legislation. He also charged that the commission was employing one administrative supervisor for every field worker on its staff.

Taking on another state agency, Post called the California Disaster Office "inadequate, ineffective and inequitable." Either the CDO should be trimmed back to a skeleton merely for natural disaster relief, or it should be expanded to perform the duties it would be called upon to perform if an actual attack was launched on California by an enemy, he said.

These are only a few samples of the critical scrutiny given fiscal proposals of the state agencies by the legislative auditor. Later, when the budget for the year is finally pulled together into one huge document for presentation to the Legislature next February, Post will publish a little book of his own. Called the "Analysis of the Budget Bill," and usually more than 1,000 pages long, it takes up each department's budget almost item by item.

It is to the great credit of the Legislature that they have set up such an analyst to study the budgets in advance. It is too bad, however, that in the long run they don't pay more attention to what he has to say.

Holly, A Part Of Christmas

Twisted, spiked, shiny, dark-green and beautiful—that's one way to describe the traditional Yuletide holly leaves. Add to these, the brilliant scarlet of the holly berries and we have one of our most attractive Christmas decorations.

The custom of using holly as a holiday decoration came from the Old World where the use of holly, ivy and bay was an old Saxon custom about this time of year. But the whys are lost in the mists of historical memory.

Holly trees do quite nicely in Marin. However, they are native only to the eastern part of the United States. In northern Virginia they can still be seen growing wild, though most of them have been hacked unmercifully out of shape by decoration-conscious persons. (One is tempted to say vandals.)

Much of our commercial holly is grown on holly farms in Oregon. The trees are interesting to see because of their green, algae-covered trunks. Left alone, they grow 15 or 20 feet high in a handsome pyramid shape.

Probably the two qualities which make holly such a valuable decoration are that even after it drys out the leaves remain a lustrous dark-green and stick to the stem.

Holly trees in Marin fall victims to a kind of smut and must be sprayed several times a year. Birds are fond of the berries, too, and this makes it hard to get more than a scraggly berry or two from the home-grown kind.

HAL BOYLE'S COLUMN

15 Years Ago Today, U.S. Soldier Wrote History In A Single Word

NEW YORK (AP) — Fifteen years ago today a U.S. brigadier general became the first soldier in history to win military immortality with a four-letter word.

The word was "Nuts!" and the man who said it — and later came to hate the word — now feels it changed his whole life.

This bit of American slang, delivered as a defiant reply to a German surrender demand, infuriated a Nazi army. It set the Allied world rocking with laughter and pride.

Today it is still the best remembered symbol of the greatest engagement fought by American troops in World War II — the Battle of the Bulge in Belgium.

The battle, personally planned by Adolf Hitler in a last-ditch gamble, began at 5 a.m. Dec. 16, 1944, with a bombardment by 1,900 German artillery pieces.

The Nazis, attacking with 250,000 troops and 1,000 tanks through the Allied "rest camp" area in the Ardennes, achieved complete tactical surprise.

The acting commander, Anthony (Old Crock) McAuliffe, and the 101st Airborne Division were rushed by truck to Bastogne. There, strongly supported by elements of the U.S. 9th and 10th Armored Divisions, McAuliffe held the vital Belgium road center against frantic German break-through efforts.

The enemy couldn't bypass him. They had to destroy his force to go on. And if they couldn't go on their cause was lost.

By Dec. 22, McAuliffe and his 10,000 men were surrounded by seven Nazi divisions and outnumber four to one.

Through the morning gloom four German soldiers carrying a white flag trudged up to an outpost three miles south of Bastogne.

They carried a message which said in part: "The fortune of war is changing. There is only one possibility to save the encircled U.S.A. troops from total annihilation. That is the honorable surrender of the encircled town."

"If this proposal should be rejected, one German artillery corps and six heavy battalions are ready to annihilate the U.S.A. troops in and near Bastogne."

The four Germans, blindfolded by their own truce flag were handed McAuliffe's quickly scrawled reply: "To the German commander, Nuts! The American Commander."

WHEN ONE OF THE Germans who spoke English complained he didn't understand the message, he was told it meant "go to hell." He said he understood this, and the four were blindfolded again and led away.

The battle raged on for more than four days and four nights until an armored column from Gen. George Patton's 3rd Army broke through and lifted the siege.

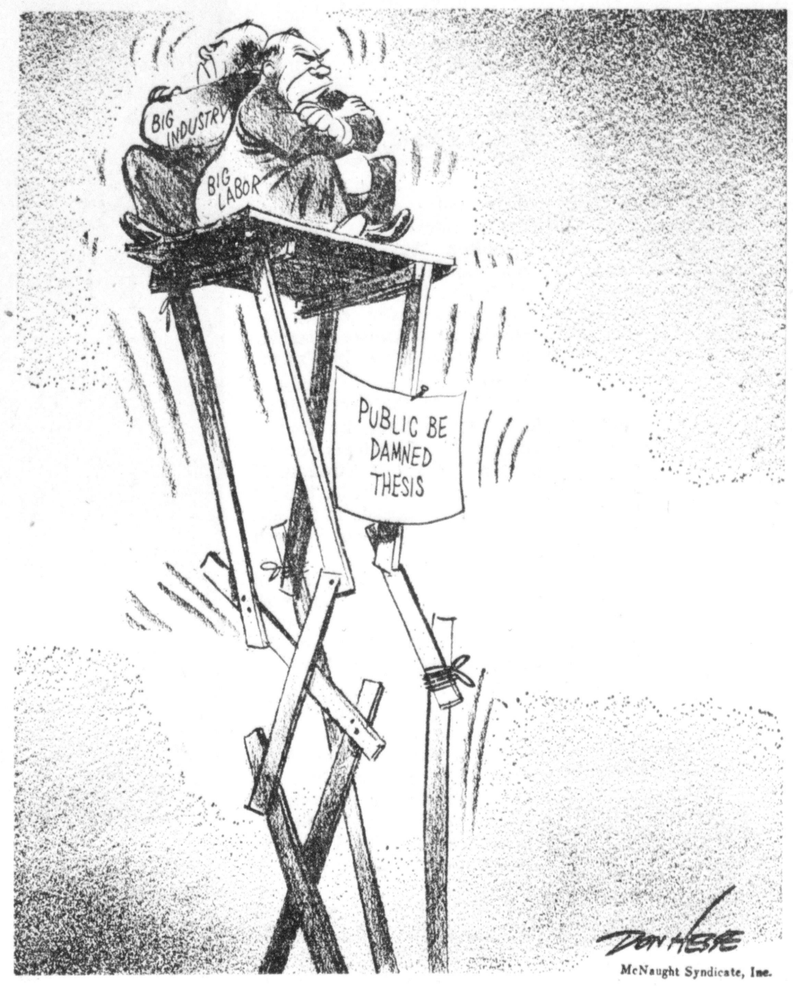

AFTER THE WAR, McAuliffe rose steadily in the service until he retired in 1956 as a full general commanding the U.S. Army in Europe. He is now a vice president of the American Cyanamid Co.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Christmas Early In Woodacre

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Christmas came to Woodacre early this year.

The people living on Central and Railroad avenues awoke early on a Sunday morning two weeks ago and found that Santa had left them a present of 28 television antenna poles standing very erect on their property line. These taxpayers, being adults, started looking for the guy playing Santa Claus and found him to be Robert D. Lewis of Bob's TV in San Rafael. They also found his helpers to be Marvin Brigham, director of public works, and the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

We were quite surprised to receive these gifts, especially when no one had even hinted we wanted TV poles for Christmas. Of course Supervisor William Gnoss let something slip out of Santa's bag when he said, "some of the older kids had probably dropped the hint." Also, another of Santa's helpers let it be known that when the majority of the kids objected to the presence of these presents, he was quoted as saying, "It won't make any difference, it looks like the devil up there anyway."

Well, anyway 55 protestors signed a letter saying they did not like the looks of the poles and that they were a hazard and the cable should be under ground like they were in the other districts; 16 pro pole fans said they wanted them.

The Board of Supervisors and the anti-pole kids went thru different schools. The supervisors learned that the minority always has the favor over the majority. After all, 16 for keeping the poles and 55 against was enough to convince the arbitrators the poles had to stay.

The permit that has been issued making it possible to establish a bad precedent can be revoked by the Board of Supervisors. The decision to correct an injustice done to the majority of the tax payers in Woodacre lies with the Board of Supervisors.

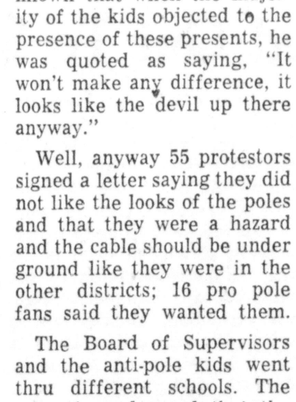

The original permit called for underground installation. This is the type of installation in other districts, and we believe we are entitled to the same consideration. We have the feeling that when Bob's TV appealed to Mr. Brigham for an easier way to relieve his financial burden, he gave the permit to raise the poles in Woodacre because we did not know any better.

Ours is not an influential neighborhood and our homes are not pretentious, but we try to make up for it with our humble application of community pride and fair play. We beg the Board of Supervisors to revoke the permit issued by Mr. Brigham permitting the indignity forced upon our community. Mr. Gnoss was advised by the county counsel that the county has the right to revoke the encroachment permit without liability or expense to the county.

If this appeal to the supervisors is in vain, we can only bend to our knees before Mr. Lewis and ask one question and make one statement. Why are you antagonizing potential customers? We could very well be some of your best.

PAUL O. COVEY

The Country Parson

"I don't see how we can expect to pass new laws that will make men better than the old laws have."

But I know there was no intent to do so — if it happened at all, and the I-J, as a disinterested observer, was astute enough to realize this.

One last comment on his snide remarks concerning the course "Problems of American Democracy:" Among the "Problems" are groups organized to undermine public education.

Read School Letter With Amazement

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

As a taxpayer with one son who is a student in the Tamalpais Union High School District system and two daughters with that prospect ahead of them, and as a voter who worked for the passage of the rate increase a year ago, I read with amazement and contempt the letter of W. R. Sutherland in today's (Dec. 17) I-J.

It was this type of mentality displayed by many of the opponents of the rate increase that proved so helpful in convincing the voters of the district to pass the measure.

If this person is a "professional investigator," I suggest he search his heart as to whether his type of education is sufficient for our youth in today's highly technical, highly competitive world.

And I challenge him to produce ONE of the students who were "nearly terrified lest it become known at school that their parents did not favor the tax increase." Terrified of whom?

Such generalities are typical of the "anti-school" group residing in the Tamalpais Union High School District which attempts to hamstring any and all efforts to provide additional educational facilities for the District's students.

I believe the I-J's editorial commenting on the Grand Jury's report on the campaign to pass the rate increase was both fair and accurate. In the heat of a campaign, with much at stake, it is possible to step across the boundary line which is poorly defined.

Here Is How Gov. Rockefeller Has Put Himself On Record On Issues

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the past few weeks, New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has taken a stand on a number of issues ranging from labor to farmers to foreign affairs. On some he's been direct, on some fuzzy.

On and off for weeks he's been whisking around the country to figure his chances if he ran against Vice President Richard M. Nixon for the Republican 1960 presidential nomination.

Since Nixon has had years to line up Republicans on his side — and Rockefeller admits the vice president has a big edge — this has been a little like looking for Santa Claus. So he has had to identify himself by taking a stand.

He has had to give Republicans some reasons — beyond a big smile — why they might prefer him to Nixon. Nixon, being in front, has stayed quiet.

IN THE PAST week in the Midwest Rockefeller has been banging into Nixon strongholds. But he's kept up a cheerful look. He said he will announce early in January whether he will try to take on Nixon.

Probably the most controversial thing he has said yet—because it ran headon into President Eisenhower's policy — was his stand on nuclear weapons testing.

The United States, Britain and the Soviet Union have suspended the tests while they try to work out some foolproof agreement to end them altogether. Rockefeller said he would resume the tests.

His reason: To keep the United States from falling "behind in the advanced techniques of nuclear materials."

Here are other positions he has taken:

LABOR—He suggests labor forego further reductions in the work week as a help to the country's economic growth; the President should have legal power to compel compulsory arbitration when a long strike threatens the country's welfare.

But — he said he doesn't think compulsory arbitration should apply to all strikes. He made it plain he was talking only about extreme cases.

SUPREME COURT'S ban on public school segregation — "I regard it as necessary and historic affirmation and clarification of the essential liberties and the abiding principles by which America must live."

This was a more direct stand than Eisenhower has so far taken on the decision which was handed down May 17, 1954.

FEDERAL AID to education — He's for such aid — for school construction and scholarships — "where there is proven need."

BIRTH CONTROL—"If the people of a country requesting technical assistance from the United States in an area where it had knowledge (as in birth control) it would seem to me that the United States would want to cooperate with them if it was in the interest of the other country."

HEALTH INSURANCE — Favored a system of health insurance which would preserve the private kind, but supplement it with government action where needed.

NON-COMMUNIST affidavit — Called for repeal of the non-Communist affidavit required of college students seeking loans under the National Defense Education Act, but he said he thought they should be willing to take the loyalty oath required by law.

ON SECRETARY of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson — Doesn't agree with suggestions by some Republicans that Benson should quit. He said "we are not going to solve problems by seeking scapegoats."

FARM PROGRAM — Outlined a 4-point plan, based primarily on long-term rentals on farms by the federal government. This was a pretty sketchy proposal. But he said the present price support systems don't meet the needs of the farm problem.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS — Outlined a 7-point program. This was extremely vague, except for saying the United States should retain maximum military power.

THE COUNTRY correspondent in Amberson reports that "the children will be going back to school Wednesday morning after being off Monday and Tuesday for hunting deer."

Big news, too, from Bloserville, where "attendance at the Evangelical United Brethren Church Sunday School was 86, with an offering of $45.73." (The Church of God Sunday School in McClure's Gap had a bigger turnout, but a smaller offering, $29.24.)

The Roxbury scribe points out that "if the sun shines through the apple tree on Christmas Day there will be a good crop the following year."

"Mrs. Verne Hammond had pneumonia on one side and was better when she got pleurisy on the other side, but glad she is some better," writes the Spring Run correspondent "Hope she continues getting better."

THESE ITEMS convey some of the rich flavor of the News-Chronicle, but for downright folksiness nothing can top the offerings of its Stringtown Stringer. Here's a sampling from the pen of this wise, warm-hearted lady (and the punctuation, we hasten to add, is hers):

"Well, folks it snowed on Nov. 29 so watch now we'll have that many, but I'm glad it stopped. Save it for the holidays.

"The writer had her three boys over for the weekend. They like it so over here. Wish they could move on an orchard somewhere to work, as he is a good worker. . . .

"Uncle Jesse really looks bad these last few days. The writer is worried for him. Before it was too hot and now it is too cold. But I guess that is the way with all old folks.

"Mrs. Blanche Varner had an oil heater explode. It broke into pieces and burned a man very bad getting it under control. They are no good. Take coal or wood anytime for me.

"WELL THERE ARE a lot of people dying today that never died before folks. Never can tell who is next to be called, maybe me or you, who knows.

"Well, I'm getting ready to send out a lot of Christmas cards now. Only 99 cards to a lot of my friends as I get a lot too. . . .

"Folks, the writer drove a man in his big new Dodge over to Adams County on Sunday . . . We just drove through the mountains at five miles an hour. The first the writer ever drove so slow but he was an old man and he knew every one around there for miles . . . It seems like an old person enjoys himself a lot as he said it was a long time since he was on that road. He talked about using mule teams on that mountain to haul wood down with and how people are cutting their timber down.

"IT SURELY WAS a shame for those two boys who were killed by trucks. One from Mont Alto and one from Mercerburg. One three years old and one 14. Those folks won't have a very nice Christmas.

"Well, it is very cold out here in the country this Monday morning. The folks will get cold hands hanging up clothes today and running over the mountains for deer."

State Spending Critic Has His Say If Anyone Listens

This is the time of year when dream programs of state agencies come under scrutiny by a man paid to be critical. And often he pricks a balloon or two.

A. Alan Post is known as the state's legislative analyst. One of his jobs is to look at what various governmental departments want to spend money for and to analyze what he finds. At this time of year the Joint Legislative Budget Committee is going over proposed budgets of state agencies—and Mr. Post is having his say.

For example, last week he ripped into the state's new conservation camp program as being little more than small prisons spread around the countryside. He declared that a 1000-man conservation center in Lassen County would in fact provide conservation work for only 100 men, with the others involved in vocational and academic education programs and 175 of them used for plant maintenance.

Post lashed out at growing bureaucracy in the new Fair Employment Practices Commission, charging it was attempting to exceed its authority by entering into education and research programs not specified in the enabling legislation. He also charged that the commission was employing one administrative supervisor for every field worker on its staff.

Taking on another state agency, Post called the California Disaster Office "inadequate, ineffective and inequitable." Either the CDO should be trimmed back to a skeleton merely for natural disaster relief, or it should be expanded to perform the duties it would be called upon to perform if an actual attack was launched on California by an enemy, he said.

These are only a few samples of the critical scrutiny given fiscal proposals of the state agencies by the legislative auditor. Later, when the budget for the year is finally pulled together into one huge document for presentation to the Legislature next February, Post will publish a little book of his own. Called the "Analysis of the Budget Bill," and usually more than 1,000 pages long, it takes up each department's budget almost item by item.

It is to the great credit of the Legislature that they have set up such an analyst to study the budgets in advance. It is too bad, however, that in the long run they don't pay more attention to what he has to say.

Holly, A Part Of Christmas

Twisted, spiked, shiny, dark-green and beautiful—that's one way to describe the traditional Yuletide holly leaves. Add to these, the brilliant scarlet of the holly berries and we have one of our most attractive Christmas decorations.

The custom of using holly as a holiday decoration came from the Old World where the use of holly, ivy and bay was an old Saxon custom about this time of year. But the whys are lost in the mists of historical memory.

Holly trees do quite nicely in Marin. However, they are native only to the eastern part of the United States. In northern Virginia they can still be seen growing wild, though most of them have been hacked unmercifully out of shape by decoration-conscious persons. (One is tempted to say vandals.)

Much of our commercial holly is grown on holly farms in Oregon. The trees are interesting to see because of their green, algae-covered trunks. Left alone, they grow 15 or 20 feet high in a handsome pyramid shape.

Probably the two qualities which make holly such a valuable decoration are that even after it drys out the leaves remain a lustrous dark-green and stick to the stem.

Holly trees in Marin fall victims to a kind of smut and must be sprayed several times a year. Birds are fond of the berries, too, and this makes it hard to get more than a scraggly berry or two from the home-grown kind.

15 Years Ago Today, U.S. Soldier Wrote History In A Single Word

NEW YORK (AP) — Fifteen years ago today a U.S. brigadier general became the first soldier in history to win military immortality with a four-letter word.

The word was "Nuts!" and the man who said it — and later came to hate the word — now feels it changed his whole life.

This bit of American slang, delivered as a defiant reply to a German surrender demand, infuriated a Nazi army. It set the Allied world rocking with laughter and pride.

Today it is still the best remembered symbol of the greatest engagement fought by American troops in World War II — the Battle of the Bulge in Belgium.

The battle, personally planned by Adolf Hitler in a last-ditch gamble, began at 5 a.m. Dec. 16, 1944, with a bombardment by 1,900 German artillery pieces.

The Nazis, attacking with 250,000 troops and 1,000 tanks through the Allied "rest camp" area in the Ardennes, achieved complete tactical surprise.

The acting commander, Anthony (Old Crock) McAuliffe, and the 101st Airborne Division were rushed by truck to Bastogne. There, strongly supported by elements of the U.S. 9th and 10th Armored Divisions, McAuliffe held the vital Belgium road center against frantic German break-through efforts.

The enemy couldn't bypass him. They had to destroy his force to go on. And if they couldn't go on their cause was lost.

By Dec. 22, McAuliffe and his 10,000 men were surrounded by seven Nazi divisions and outnumber four to one.

Through the morning gloom four German soldiers carrying a white flag trudged up to an outpost three miles south of Bastogne.

They carried a message which said in part: "The fortune of war is changing. There is only one possibility to save the encircled U.S.A. troops from total annihilation. That is the honorable surrender of the encircled town."

"If this proposal should be rejected, one German artillery corps and six heavy battalions are ready to annihilate the U.S.A. troops in and near Bastogne."

The four Germans, blindfolded by their own truce flag were handed McAuliffe's quickly scrawled reply: "To the German commander, Nuts! The American Commander."

WHEN ONE OF THE Germans who spoke English complained he didn't understand the message, he was told it meant "go to hell." He said he understood this, and the four were blindfolded again and led away.

The battle raged on for more than four days and four nights until an armored column from Gen. George Patton's 3rd Army broke through and lifted the siege.

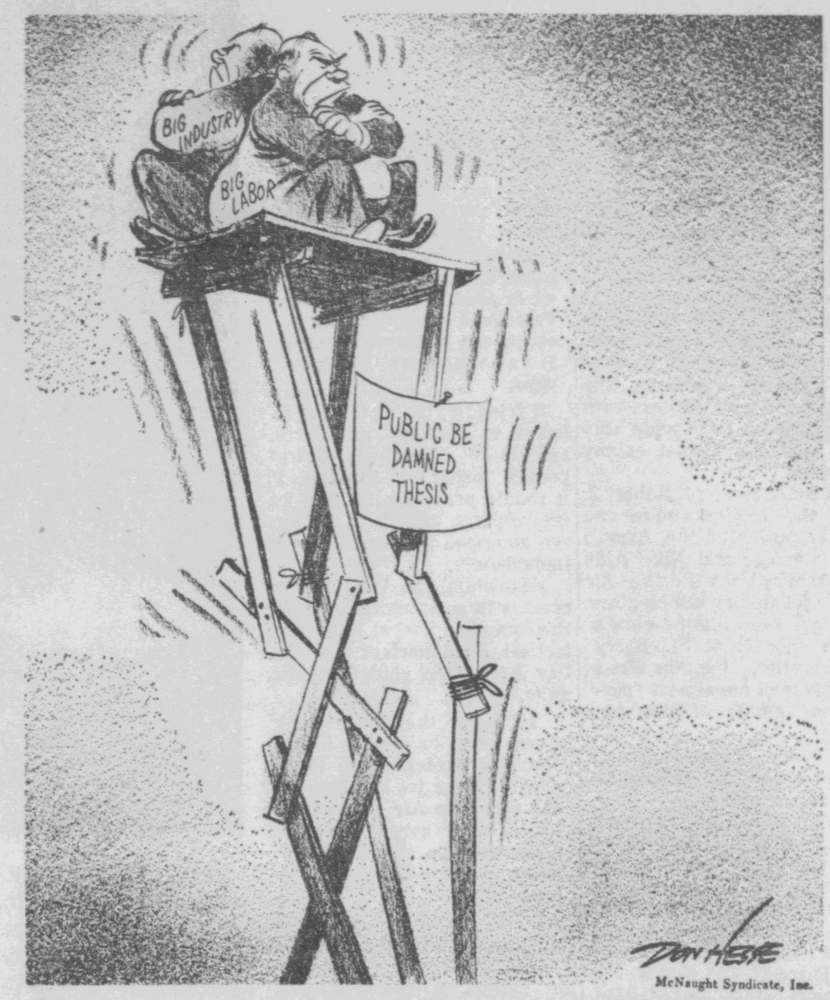

AFTER THE WAR, McAuliffe rose steadily in the service until he retired in 1956 as a full general commanding the U.S. Army in Europe. He is now a vice president of the American Cyanamid Co.

Christmas Early In Woodacre

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Christmas came to Woodacre early this year.

The people living on Central and Railroad avenues awoke early on a Sunday morning two weeks ago and found that Santa had left them a present of 28 television antenna poles standing very erect on their property line. These taxpayers, being adults, started looking for the guy playing Santa Claus and found him to be Robert D. Lewis of Bob's TV in San Rafael. They also found his helpers to be Marvin Brigham, director of public works, and the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

We were quite surprised to receive these gifts, especially when no one had even hinted we wanted TV poles for Christmas. Of course Supervisor William Gnoss let something slip out of Santa's bag when he said, "some of the older kids had probably dropped the hint." Also, another of Santa's helpers let it be known that when the majority of the kids objected to the presence of these presents, he was quoted as saying, "It won't make any difference, it looks like the devil up there anyway."

Well, anyway 55 protestors signed a letter saying they did not like the looks of the poles and that they were a hazard and the cable should be under ground like they were in the other districts; 16 pro pole fans said they wanted them.

The Board of Supervisors and the anti-pole kids went thru different schools. The supervisors learned that the minority always has the favor over the majority. After all, 16 for keeping the poles and 55 against was enough to convince the arbitrators the poles had to stay.

The permit that has been issued making it possible to establish a bad precedent can be revoked by the Board of Supervisors. The decision to correct an injustice done to the majority of the tax payers in Woodacre lies with the Board of Supervisors.

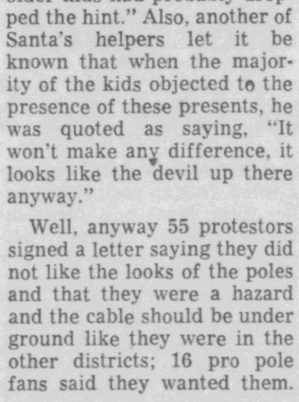

The original permit called for underground installation. This is the type of installation in other districts, and we believe we are entitled to the same consideration. We have the feeling that when Bob's TV appealed to Mr. Brigham for an easier way to relieve his financial burden, he gave the permit to raise the poles in Woodacre because we did not know any better.

Ours is not an influential neighborhood and our homes are not pretentious, but we try to make up for it with our humble application of community pride and fair play. We beg the Board of Supervisors to revoke the permit issued by Mr. Brigham permitting the indignity forced upon our community. Mr. Gnoss was advised by the county counsel that the county has the right to revoke the encroachment permit without liability or expense to the county.

If this appeal to the supervisors is in vain, we can only bend to our knees before Mr. Lewis and ask one question and make one statement. Why are you antagonizing potential customers? We could very well be some of your best.

Read School Letter With Amazement

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

As a taxpayer with one son who is a student in the Tamalpais Union High School District system and two daughters with that prospect ahead of them, and as a voter who worked for the passage of the rate increase a year ago, I read with amazement and contempt the letter of W. R. Sutherland in today's (Dec. 17) I-J.

It was this type of mentality displayed by many of the opponents of the rate increase that proved so helpful in convincing the voters of the district to pass the measure.

If this person is a "professional investigator," I suggest he search his heart as to whether his type of education is sufficient for our youth in today's highly technical, highly competitive world.

And I challenge him to produce ONE of the students who were "nearly terrified lest it become known at school that their parents did not favor the tax increase." Terrified of whom?

Such generalities are typical of the "anti-school" group residing in the Tamalpais Union High School District which attempts to hamstring any and all efforts to provide additional educational facilities for the District's students.

I believe the I-J's editorial commenting on the Grand Jury's report on the campaign to pass the rate increase was both fair and accurate. In the heat of a campaign, with much at stake, it is possible to step across the boundary line which is poorly defined. But I know there was no intent to do so — if it happened at all, and the I-J, as a disinterested observer, was astute enough to realize this.

One last comment on his snide remarks concerning the course "Problems of American Democracy:" Among the "Problems" are groups organized to undermine public education.

Here Is How Gov. Rockefeller Has Put Himself On Record On Issues

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the past few weeks, New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has taken a stand on a number of issues ranging from labor to farmers to foreign affairs. On some he's been direct, on some fuzzy.

On and off for weeks he's been whisking around the country to figure his chances if he ran against Vice President Richard M. Nixon for the Republican 1960 presidential nomination.

Since Nixon has had years to line up Republicans on his side — and Rockefeller admits the vice president has a big edge — this has been a little like looking for Santa Claus. So he has had to identify himself by taking a stand.

He has had to give Republicans some reasons — beyond a big smile — why they might prefer him to Nixon. Nixon, being in front, has stayed quiet.

IN THE PAST week in the Midwest Rockefeller has been banging into Nixon strongholds. But he's kept up a cheerful look. He said he will announce early in January whether he will try to take on Nixon.

Probably the most controversial thing he has said yet—because it ran headon into President Eisenhower's policy — was his stand on nuclear weapons testing.

The United States, Britain and the Soviet Union have suspended the tests while they try to work out some foolproof agreement to end them altogether. Rockefeller said he would resume the tests.

His reason: To keep the United States from falling "behind in the advanced techniques of nuclear materials."

Here are other positions he has taken:

LABOR—He suggests labor forego further reductions in the work week as a help to the country's economic growth; the President should have legal power to compel compulsory arbitration when a long strike threatens the country's welfare.

But — he said he doesn't think compulsory arbitration should apply to all strikes. He made it plain he was talking only about extreme cases.

SUPREME COURT'S ban on public school segregation — "I regard it as necessary and historic affirmation and clarification of the essential liberties and the abiding principles by which America must live."

This was a more direct stand than Eisenhower has so far taken on the decision which was handed down May 17, 1954.

FEDERAL AID to education — He's for such aid — for school construction and scholarships — "where there is proven need."

BIRTH CONTROL—"If the people of a country requesting technical assistance from the United States in an area where it had knowledge (as in birth control) it would seem to me that the United States would want to cooperate with them if it was in the interest of the other country."

HEALTH INSURANCE — Favored a system of health insurance which would preserve the private kind, but supplement it with government action where needed.

NON-COMMUNIST affidavit — Called for repeal of the non-Communist affidavit required of college students seeking loans under the National Defense Education Act, but he said he thought they should be willing to take the loyalty oath required by law.

ON SECRETARY of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson — Doesn't agree with suggestions by some Republicans that Benson should quit. He said "we are not going to solve problems by seeking scapegoats."

FARM PROGRAM — Outlined a 4-point plan, based primarily on long-term rentals on farms by the federal government. This was a pretty sketchy proposal. But he said the present price support systems don't meet the needs of the farm problem.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS — Outlined a 7-point program. This was extremely vague, except for saying the United States should retain maximum military power.

OIL DEPLETION — In response to a question he said he was favorably disposed toward the oil depletion tax allowance because it has a stimulating effect on industry.

Some Suggestions On Guiding Your Children To Right Friends

"Can I control my children's choice of friends?" a mother asks. "Our boy is 4 and our girl 3. Their friendships aren't important now, but I know they will be later. I don't want them to get in with bad companions."

You are wise to be thinking of their companions now. Some folks wait until their children belong to bad gangs. Then they try to change them and find it is too late. I have three suggestions:

1. Pick your neighborhood. Within the limits of your income be sure to live in a neighborhood in which most of the boys and girls are the sort of youngsters you want your children to be. Avoid high delinquency areas. Look around before you decide. Once you find the right place, don't move unnecessarily.

2. Make your home a gathering place. Have an attractive play yard. Encourage your children to bring their pals over. When they're older and want to dance, let them. Don't try to boss the children. Interfere only when you must. Have furniture which can stand rough use. You've more control when they're playing at your home than when they're elsewhere.

3. Raise your children in a good church. Pick a church with a leader you admire and doctrines you accept. Start your children in the appropriate groups right away, and let them grow up as members. Attend regularly. Church groups almost never go bad. Children need the strength which comes with faith in God. They need the high personal standards churches teach. And they need to have fun with like-minded boys and girls.

Today is Tuesday, Dec. 22, the 365th day of the year, with nine more days in 1959.

The moon is in its last quarter.

The morning stars are Mercury and Venus.

On this day in history:

In 1775, the Continental fleet was organized, consisting of two frigates, two briggs and three schooners.

In 1869, American poet Edwin Arlington Robinson was born.

In 1941, a message from Wake Island said the American stronghold had fallen to the Japanese.

In 1944, Gen. Anthony McAuliffe, commander of the 101st Airborne Division, caught in the Battle of the Bulge, answered a German demand for surrender in one word. It was "Nuts."

A though for today: Former President Herbert Hoover said: "A good many things go around in the dark besides Santa Claus."

The newest U. S. Cabinet post, the Department of Health Education and Welfare, was created in 1953.

Led by Army Capt. Robert J. Feist, the soldiers unite the striking power of the Army's Nike Hercules and Nike Ajax guided missiles with the Air Force's jet fighter interceptors.

As part of the nation's early warning system, Navy picket ships and Air Force detection planes report all speedy aircraft approaching the Bay Area to the master direction center atop Mt. Tam.

Air Force Lt. Col. Gus Weiser commands this installation, whose mission is "detection, identification and destruction of enemy aircraft."

An oncoming aircraft must be identified as "friendly, hostile or unknown," determined by radio contact, checking flight plans or electronic codes. If a plane cannot immeditely be determined friendly, it becomes an unknown.

While this unknown is still many miles away, the Air Force interceptor unit at Hamilton Air Force Base sends up jets which are guided to the target by the Mt. Tamalpais radar crews to check the unknown aircraft at a wing-level bird's-eye view.

If friendly, the aircraft is allowed to continue its course, and the Mt. Tamalpais control people "usher" it through. If it should prove hostile, the jet interceptors, already in the air, are equipped to shoot it down immediately.

Meanwhile, the Army liaison crew is in communication with the command post at Ft. Barry, tactical headquarters for the Bay Area Nike guided missile units.

To keep the Air Force-Army team in combat form, frequent exercises are staged, using the jet bombers of the Strategic Air Command, which tries every trick to penetrate the shield of the Army and Air Force air defense units.

At the command post, defense commander Col. Andrew R. Lolli and his staff study the air battle on their plotting board. In event of the real thing, a supersonic Nike Hercules or Ajax guided missile would burst from itis launching pad at one of 16 sites in the Bay Area, and be radar-guided to its target.

As for living conditions on Mt. Tamalpais, Captain Feist says, "The Air Force base here is a city in itself. The base has modern living quarters, its own dining hall, both indoor and outdoor sports facilities, a TV and hi-fi room, library, chapel, small theater, and even a complete post office and swimming pool."

Although the view is breathtaking most of the time, Mt. Tamalpais frequently does an about-face. Thick fog sometime isolates the soldiers and airmen in a completely gray world for days at a time.

Winds, channeled up through the valleys and passes, often exceed 100 miles per hour, turning the rains into biting pellets which drive in horizontally. During weather like this, normal activity becomes a terrific task.

School Gets Jet From Air Force

GAVIOTA, Santa Barbara County (AP)—The kids at the Vista Del Mar elementary school have received a dandy Christma present from the Air Force—a jet airplane.

The F86 Sabrejet, sans engine and weapons, was delivered to this ranching community near the Pacific Ocean last weekend by the 1st Missile Division at nearby Vandenberg Air Force Base.

Six months ago, principal Warren Binzley casually asked Vandenberg officers if they happened to have a retired jet that could be set up on the school grounds. They didn't but they found one at an Arizona relocation center and had it flown to Vandenberg.

Binzley was somewhat startled when he saw three helicopters fly over the mountains and land on the schoolyard with the disassembled jet parts. Air force maintenance men reassembled the newly painted 6,800-lb plane, leaving the cockpit and instrument panel intact.

Housewives Seen As Pet Target For Phony Ads

WASHINGTON (AP) — A housewife who would like to earn a few dollars at home is a favorite target of deceptive employment advertising, a spokesman for the Assn. of Better Business Bureaus said today.

Edwin M. Lockard, who is also general manager of the Baltimore Better Business Bureau, spoke today from a statement prepared for a Federal Trade Commission Conference on Deceptive Advertising.

The commission concludes today a two-day session for representatives of 47 consumers, civic and other organizations, seeking to strengthen defenses against misleading advertising and other deceptive sales practices.

OFFICER ONLY TOO HAPPY TO OBLIGE

Driving three juveniles back to jail in their own car, a fourth youth on the street flagged him down.

"Hey, stop! Take me too," the boy yelled, thinking his buddies were leaving him behind.

Koster stopped, let the boy in and told him he may as well come along too. The boys were picked up for street fighting.

Catches His Bus

ATLANTA (AP) — An enterprising drunk has found a new way to escape police.

The officer, awaiting the paddy wagon, turned to his motorcycle to write out the charges. When he turned around, the sidewalk was empty. A bus had stopped at the corner and the prisoner had hopped aboard and disappeared.

Size Of Rooftop Sign To Be Subject Of Tests

Tests will be made by the Marin County Planning Commission to decide the size of block letters required for rooftop visibility near Highway 101, the commission decided yesterday.

This resulted from prolonged discussions of an application by Lee Brothers to erect an oversized sign on the roof of their Marinwood Shopping Center market, and after the company had temporarily dropped its application for a similar sign in Novato where their project is "in a farther-off stage."

The project is so sizeable, it was argued, that only half the necessary business can come from Marinwood and the remainder must be drawn from the highway.

Frank Perachiotti, Novato real estate dealer, sought reclassification of a three and three-fourth acre parcel of land at Center road and Diablo avenue in Novato on the ground that it is "worth $10,000 an acre, too high for single family use," and that he has a prospective buyer prepared to construct a high-class big apartment building.

Commissioners ascertained by questioning that the $10,000 value actually depended on their action in reclassifying from single family to multiple residence district, and denied the request.

The commission also:

1. Continued to Jan. 18 L. B. Cooper's application to divide a property on Tiburon boulevard near Rose street outside San Rafael.

2. Continued to Jan. 4, consideration of architectural plans for Joseph J. Dillenberg's Novato shop at the Novato Plaza Shopping Center.

Cranberry Men To Ask Damages

BOSTON (AP)—The National Cranberry Institute will seek federal government payments of 15 to 20 million dollars for damages the industry says it sustained through a Food and Drug Administration announcement last month.

The Food and Drug Administration's pre-Thanksgiving announcement that some berries were thought to have been contaminated by a weed killer caused heavy damage in the marketing of the 1959 crop, and may cause losses in the 1960 crop, Institute President Orrin Colley said yesterday.

Pony Express Envelope To Be Issued

A commemorative stamped envelope—only the seventh in United States postal history—will be issued next July 19 to commemorate the centennial of the Pony Express, the Post Office Department announced yesterday.

The four-cent embossed envelope, design for which has not yet been selected, will have first day sale at both St. Joseph, Mo., and Sacramento, the Post Office Department announced.

It will go on sale the day the centennial run of the Pony Express begins—from Sacramento eastward and St. Joseph westward. A sepcial four-cent stamp commemorating the event, to have first day sale at Sacramento only, had been authorized earlier.

Waddell F. Smith of San Rafael, president of the National Pony Express Centennial Assn., hailed the envelope announcement as giving St. Joseph its share of recognition. He tried unsuccessfully to have the adhesive commemorative stamp placed on first day sale at both ends of the run. Post Office Department rules prevented it, he reported.

Although commemorative stamps are issued frequently, commemorative embossed envelope stamps appear on only extremely rare occasions, Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield noted. Since the U. S. government began issuing postage stamps in 1847, only six such envelope issues have appeared.

Almost, But Not Quite, Foolproof Route Worked Out To Squaw Valley

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The California Highway Patrol has developed an almost foolproof traffic flow plan for the winter Olympics at Squaw Valley—but one foolish driver could wreck it.

This was pointed up today by Capt. Richard B. Langner, Auburn area commanding officer in charge of the California Highway Patrol for the Squaw Valley Olympics. It is Langner's responsibility to keep traffic moving smoothly to and from the winter games site in February.

U.S. 40 is the main highway into the valley. Most of it is four-lane divided highway. But, there are two two-lane stretches: One the treacherous and winding 10.3 mile section from Soda Springs over Donner Summit to the east end of Donner Lake.

The other two-lane strip runs from Monte Vista to Hampshire Rocks, but one side of the freeway will be completed between Monte Vista and Baxter to provide for four-lane traffic by Olympics time.

The big hurdle is the Donner grade. There is no alternate route. If traffic becomes extremely heavy, as is expected, Donner grade will be made one way for parts of the mornings when cars are headed for the valley. Westbound traffic will be held up during these periods. In the evenings, the pattern will be reversed.

"The California trucking industry has been contacted about this, and they are giving us maximum cooperation," Langner said. "They have offered to hold, reroute or re-schedule trucks during the one-way."

Highway 89 from its junction with U.S. 40 to the Squaw Valley turn off is four-lane, undivided. During peak hour traffic, three lanes will carry inbound traffic, one-lane outbound. At night, the situation will be reversed, Langner said.

"All we need to keep traffic moving at a good pace is the reasonable cooperation of the public," says Langner. "Highways are built to take just so much. We will utilize them to the fullest extent and will make do with what we have."

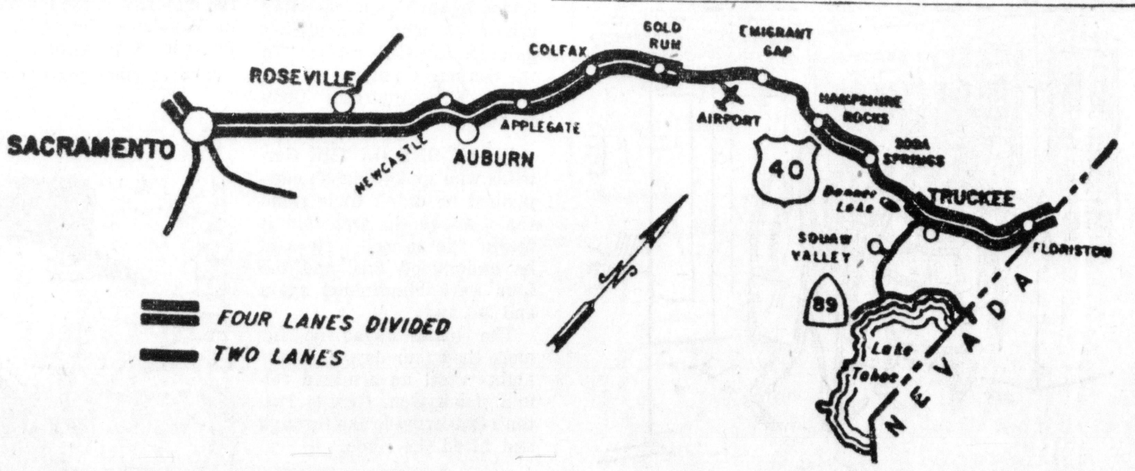

To help Langer implement the plan, the California Highway Patrol has assigned 180 uniformed patrolmen for 24-hour duty, added 75 patrol cars to an existing complement of 18, and provided three panel trucks to service patrol vehicles, transport stores and serve hot meals to officers.

In addition a one-and one-half ton truck, a converted bus which will serve as a weather information center in the valley, and a converted civil defense bus to be used as a CHP post headquarters will be assigned to the area.

For this the state added an extra $113,937 to the CHP's operating budget. The monies will also provide other necessities.

"Eighteen months ago we had it figured down to the last gallon of anti-freeze and parkas for the patrolmen," said Langner. Four years went into California's planning of the highway patrol program.

"Now all we need," Langner said, "is the public's cooperation. I don't believe that with driver courtesy we will have any trouble . . . but one stupid driver towing a house trailer up an iced highway without chains could cause a monstrous jam!"

HIGHWAY ROUTE TO OLYMPICS—This drawing shows the highway route from Sacramento to Squaw Valley, site of the Winter Olympic Games Feb. 18-28. The main highway into the valley is U. S. 40. Most of it is four-lane divided highway but there are two two-lane stretches. One is a treacherous, winding 10.3 miles from Soda Springs over Donner Summit to the east end of Donner Lake. Some Suggestions On Guiding Your Children To Right Friends

"Can I control my children's choice of friends?" a mother asks. "Our boy is 4 and our girl 3. Their friendships aren't important now, but I know they will be later. I don't want them to get in with bad companions."

You are wise to be thinking of their companions now. Some folks wait until their children belong to bad gangs. Then they try to change them and find it is too late. I have three suggestions:

1. Pick your neighborhood. Within the limits of your income be sure to live in a neighborhood in which most of the boys and girls are the sort of youngsters you want your children to be. Avoid high delinquency areas. Look around before you decide. Once you find the right place, don't move unnecessarily.

2. Make your home a gathering place. Have an attractive play yard. Encourage your children to bring their pals over. When they're older and want to dance, let them. Don't try to boss the children. Interfere only when you must. Have furniture which can stand rough use. You've more control when they're playing at your home than when they're elsewhere.

3. Raise your children in a good church. Pick a church with a leader you admire and doctrines you accept. Start your children in the appropriate groups right away, and let them grow up as members. Attend regularly. Church groups almost never go bad. Children need the strength which comes with faith in God. They need the high personal standards churches teach. And they need to have fun with like-minded boys and girls.

"All we need to keep traffic moving at a good pace is the reasonable cooperation of the public," says Langner. "Highways are built to take just so much. We will utilize them to the fullest extent and will make do with what we have."

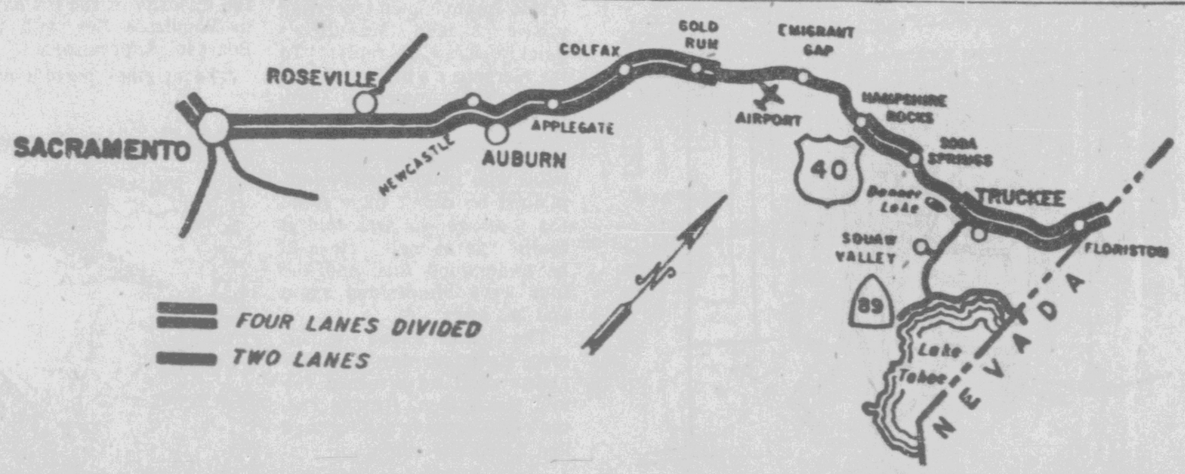

To help Langer implement the plan, the California Highway Patrol has assigned 180 uniformed patrolmen for 24-hour duty, added 75 patrol cars to an existing complement of 18, and provided three panel trucks to service patrol vehicles, transport stores and serve hot meals to officers.

In addition a one-and one-half ton truck, a converted bus which will serve as a weather information center in the valley, and a converted civil defense bus to be used as a CHP post headquarters will be assigned to the area.

For this the state added an extra $113,937 to the CHP's operating budget. The monies will also provide other necessities.

"Eighteen months ago we had it figured down to the last gallon of anti-freeze and parkas for the patrolmen," said Langner. Four years went into California's planning of the highway patrol program.

"Now all we need," Langner said, "is the public's cooperation. I don't believe that with driver courtesy we will have any trouble . . . but one stupid driver towing a house trailer up an iced highway without chains could cause a monstrous jam!"

HIGHWAY ROUTE TO OLYMPICS—This drawing shows the highway route from Sacramento to Squaw Valley, site of the Winter Olympic Games Feb. 18-28. The main highway into the valley is U. S. 40. Most of it is four-lane divided highway but there are two two-lane stretches. One is a treacherous, winding 10.3 miles from Soda Springs over Donner Summit to the east end of Donner Lake. Bank Office To Handle Car Licenses

Vehicle registration renewal service for 1960 will be available to motorists in Southern Marin at the Mill Valley office of the American Trust Co. between Jan. 4. and Feb. 4, it was announced today by bank spokesman Philip T. Smith.

Department of Motor Vehicles employees will be stationed at the bank, which is providing space as a public service, Smith said. The bank stations are authorized to issue new registration cards and rear renewal stickers only when car, truck or trailer owners submit fees with punched card statements mailed from Sacramento.

Most of the statements will have been mailed shortly after Christmas. There will be a penalty if the fees are not paid prior to midnight, Feb. 4.

No Burglar, Lightning

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP) — When Mrs. Julia Golden returned home from a trip, her house was a wreck. Windows were knocked out. Screens were torn. Planks were ripped loose.

Surely the work of burglars, she thought, and notified the sheriff's office.

But Deputy Sheriffs Frank Vaughn and W. C. Bowden said after an investigation that lightning had struck a tree and jumped to the house.

Bank Office To Handle Car Licenses

Vehicle registration renewal service for 1960 will be available to motorists in Southern Marin at the Mill Valley office of the American Trust Co. between Jan. 4. and Feb. 4, it was announced today by bank spokesman Philip T. Smith.

Department of Motor Vehicles employees will be stationed at the bank, which is providing space as a public service, Smith said. The bank stations are authorized to issue new registration cards and rear renewal stickers only when car, truck or trailer owners submit fees with punched card statements mailed from Sacramento.

Most of the statements will have been mailed shortly after Christmas. There will be a penalty if the fees are not paid prior to midnight, Feb. 4.

THE MOST WONDERFUL CHRISTMAS FOR MEN
WITH
$5
AND A PROBLEM
Problem: How to buy the perfect gift for the No. 1 girl in your life . . . and stay solvent.
Suggestion: Take that $5 to your Singer Sewing Center and leave it there . . . as a layaway deposit on a sparkling new Singer. We'll help you decide the right model and the right terms. Our prices start with the new Spartan at $59.50. Terms run to 30 months—so the most wonderful Christmas ever for her can be the most painless ever for you!
(Confidentially, she'll save more doing her own sewing than you'll be putting up for the machine.) She doesn't sew? Think nothing of it — with most models she gets a six-lesson, 15-hour sewing course, free, from one of our expert teachers. Even you could sew after that.

THE MOST WONDERFUL CHRISTMAS FOR MEN
WITH
$5
AND A PROBLEM
Problem: How to buy the perfect gift for the No. 1 girl in your life . . . and stay solvent.
Suggestion: Take that $5 to your Singer Sewing Center and leave it there . . . as a layaway deposit on a sparkling new Singer. We'll help you decide the right model and the right terms. Our prices start with the new Spartan at $59.50. Terms run to 30 months—so the most wonderful Christmas ever for her can be the most painless ever for you!
(Confidentially, she'll save more doing her own sewing than you'll be putting up for the machine.) She doesn't sew? Think nothing of it — with most models she gets a six-lesson, 15-hour sewing course, free, from one of our expert teachers. Even you could sew after that.

Toy Sales High, Report Discloses

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The government can put out some pretty dry statistics. But the Commerce Department came up with a set that should make merry Christmas reading for the nation's youngsters.

The department announced that the sale of toys and games this year was up at least 8 per cent over 1958. Furthermore, the survey predicted "the sales prospects for 1960 appear excellent."

Retail sales for 1959 were estimated at $1,650,000,000. This was one hundred fifty million dollars more than was spent in 1958.

Nostalgia Marks Yule Season For Students

By DOROTHY SLATTERY

As 10 Dominican College students sit around turkey-filled plates in California homes this Christmas, they may be swept by a feeling of nostalgia. For these young ladies are hundres of miles from their families, in a strange land at the time of year when "there is no place like home."

Christmas trees glowing with "real candles" tucked in their green limbs will be remembered by Bente Kaarsberg, a sophomore from Copenhagen, Denmark, and Ursula Hammer from Munich, Germany, as they sit before ornamented trees shining under the light-power discovered by Edison. Yule trees in the northern section of Europe are covered with flags, glass balls and flickering wax candles. A sparkling star "always" sits on top of the tree, according to these two.

In Denmark at a special Christmas Eve dinner, a dessert "Ris-a-la-mande" (rice and almonds) is served. One whole almond is hidden in the mixture. The person finding the almond in his portion receives a present. The evening ends with the youngest member of the family giving out Christmas gifts and everybody dancing arm-in-arm around the tree.

In Germany, Santa makes his appearance Dec. 6, when he visits every house giving candy to the good children and spanking the naughty ones. Angels are supposed to bring the Christmas tree and gifts to the German home on Christmas Eve.

Shoes are placed in the chimney by French children on Christmas Eve, said Jacqueline Basle, a junior from Paris. Pere Noel fills the shoes in the same manner Santa Claus stuffs stockings hanging on mantels across the United States.

In a Parisian home, the father reads Yule stories to his family on the evening of Dec. 24 before taking them to midnight mass. After church the family returns home to sit down to a large supper.

Very few Christmas trees are to be found in Mexico over the holiday season, said Ona Trimmer, a freshman from Guadalajara. The Mexican people decorate homes with large statues from the Nativity scene.

Etel Adnan, a native of Lebanon, pictured the kindling of small fires throughout the hills rimming the city of Beirut on Christmas Eve. Bells ring in distant villages throughout the night commemorating the Nativity feast. Miss Adnan is teaching humanities at the college and has not been home in four years.

In Toronto, Canada, Christmas stockings are laid across the bottom of beds for Santa to fill. Maureen Dockman, from Toronto, said when she lived in England before moving to Canada, children used pillowcases instead of stockings.

A nine-day religious observance, Missa Gallo," opens Christmas trees decorate homes and Christmas carols translated into the Chinese language are sung.

Miwa Ohe, from Tokyo, described the red-suited, white-bearded Japanese version of Santa roaming the city streets on the days before Christmas. Western food is eaten and small gifts exchanged in the land of the flowing robed Kabuki.

The New Year gets off to a bad start in Birmingham, England, said Patricia Houlihan, drama teacher of the college, if a dark haired man does not step over the threshhold at midnight carrying a lump of coal and piece of bread. This ancient Scots custom, "first footing," supposedly assures sufficient bread and fuel in the year ahead.

To Bury Cranberries

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—More than 20 tons of cranberries seized in the Thanksgiving season cranberry scare will be bulldozed into the ground tomorrow near Modesto.

The berries were among the Oregon shipments found to contain aminotriazole, a weed killer that produced cancer in rats. They were the only berries seized in California.

Toy Sales High, Report Discloses

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The government can put out some pretty dry statistics. But the Commerce Department came up with a set that should make merry Christmas reading for the nation's youngsters.

The department announced that the sale of toys and games this year was up at least 8 per cent over 1958. Furthermore, the survey predicted "the sales prospects for 1960 appear excellent."

Retail sales for 1959 were estimated at $1.650,000,000. This was one hundred fifty million dollars more than was spent in 1958.

Nostalgia Marks Yule Season For Students

By DOROTHY SLATTERY

As 10 Dominican College students sit around turkey-filled plates in California homes this Christmas, they may be swept by a feeling of nostalgia. For these young ladies are hundres of miles from their families, in a strange land at the time of year when "there is no place like home."

Christmas trees glowing with "real candles" tucked in their green limbs will be remembered by Bente Kaarsberg, a sophomore from Copenhagen, Denmark, and Ursula Hammer from Munich, Germany, as they sit before ornamented trees shining under the light-power discovered by Edison. Yule trees in the northern section of Europe are covered with flags, glass balls and flickering wax candles. A sparkling star "always" sits on top of the tree, according to these two.

In Denmark at a special Christmas Eve dinner, a dessert "Ris-a-la-mande" (rice and almonds) is served. One whole almond is hidden in the mixture. The person finding the almond in his portion receives a present. The evening ends with the youngest member of the family giving out Christmas gifts and everybody dancing arm-in-arm around the tree.

In Germany, Santa makes his appearance Dec. 6, when he visits every house giving candy to the good children and spanking the naughty ones. Angels are supposed to bring the Christmas tree and gifts to the German home on Christmas Eve.

Shoes are placed in the chimney by French children on Christmas Eve, said Jacqueline Basle, a junior from Paris. Pere Noel fills the shoes in the same manner Santa Claus stuffs stockings hanging on mantels across the United States.

In a Parisian home, the father reads Yule stories to his family on the evening of Dec. 24 before taking them to midnight mass. After church the family returns home to sit down to a large supper.

Very few Christmas trees are to be found in Mexico over the holiday season, said Ona Trimmer, a freshman from Guadalajara. The Mexican people decorate homes with large statues from the Nativity scene.

Etel Adnan, a native of Lebanon, pictured the kindling of small fires throughout the hills rimming the city of Beirut on Christmas Eve. Bells ring in distant villages throughout the night commemorating the Nativity feast. Miss Adnan is teaching humanities at the college and has not been home in four years.

In Toronto, Canada, Christmas stockings are laid across the bottom of beds for Santa to fill. Maureen Dockman, from Toronto, said when she lived in England before moving to Canada, children used pillowcases instead of stockings.

A nine-day religious observance, Missa Gallo," opens Christmas trees decorate homes and Christmas carols translated into the Chinese language are sung.

Miwa Ohe, from Tokyo, described the red-suited, white-bearded Japanese version of Santa roaming the city streets on the days before Christmas. Western food is eaten and small gifts exchanged in the land of the flowing robed Kabuki.

The New Year gets off to a bad start in Birmingham, England, said Patricia Houlihan, drama teacher of the college, if a dark haired man does not step over the threshhold at midnight carrying a lump of coal and piece of bread. This ancient Scots custom, "first footing," supposedly assures sufficient bread and fuel in the year ahead.

To Bury Cranberries

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—More than 20 tons of cranberries seized in the Thanksgiving season cranberry scare will be bulldozed into the ground tomorrow near Modesto.

The berries were among the Oregon shipments found to contain aminotriazole, a weed killer that produced cancer in rats. They were the only berries seized in California.

MANGER SCENE COMES TO LIFE IN SAN ANSELMO

Talk of the town in San Anselmo—and the subject of inquiries from as far away as San Francisco—is the live Creche d' Noel, or manger scene, at the rear of the Fleur de Lys restaurant at 112 Spaulding avenue. The live actors are (from left) Mike Vestnys, Phil Cox and James Sullivan. The donkey belongs to jeweler Will G. Peters, the sheep to Joseph Caselli and Bob's Produce, and a goat (not visible in photo) to Sunny Hills home. The lighted representation of the scene at the birth of Christ is repeated nightly from 5 to 10 o'clock, and will continue through next Sunday. (Independent-Journal photo)

North Marin May Buy Sonoma Water

The possibility arose today that North Marin may get its future water supply by buying direct from Sonoma County.

This new approach to the problem of water distribution came from Gordon Miller, chief engineer of the Sonoma County Flood Control and Water Conservation District, who suggested it as an alternative to the former plan of the North Marin district to build its own aqueduct.

"The net effect of Miller's idea should make no difference in dollars and cents for North Marin water consumers," Jerome P. Gilbert, North Marin Water District manager and chief engineer, said today.

"We have to have a guaranteed water supply," Gilbert said. "Whether we spend the money for part ownership of delivery facilities or as a purchase price, the results should be about the same."

The plan, however, agreed upon between the Sonoma district and North Marin, calls for 10,000 acre feet of water annually from the Coyote Dam on the Russian River.

Law To Eliminate Liquor License Sales Requested

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Gov Edmund G. Brown was requested today by a top state official to propose legislation to eliminate the market in state liquor licenses.

The licenses sell for as much as $30,000—or even more—in some parts of the state.

Thomas W. Martin, director of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, told Brown at a meeting of the Governor's Council that he will make a formal recommendation on the proposed legislation before he leaves his post Jan. 1.

Navy Jet Crashes On Road Edge; Pilot Safe

SAN JOSE (UPI)—A Navy F8U Crusader jet crashed and burned yesterday on the shoulder of the San Jose-Los Gatos freeway.

The pilot, Charles E. Southwick, 28, of San Jose, ejected himself from the craft and parachuted safely to earth 100 yards from the wreckage. The plane was from Fighter Squadron 124, based at Moffett Field.

Southwick said he was on maneuvers over Monterey Bay and was returning to Moffett Field at 5,500 feet when he heard a muffled explosion beneath and then a second blast.

Then, he said, as the cockpit caught flame and he say plane parts flying amid black smoke, he triggered the ejection mechanism. Southwick said he watched the plane crash as he floated to earth in a sitting position in his chair.

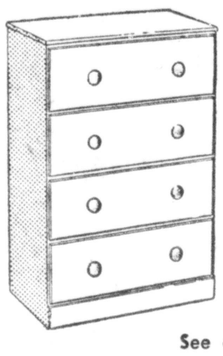

There were no reports of injuries to persons driving on the freeway. California Highway Patrolmen diverted traffic from the scene.

Bank Distributes Christmas Bonus

W. P. Murray, president of the First National Bank in San Rafael and its affiliate, the Bank of San Rafael, today announced the bank has distributed one month's salary to a majority of its more than 165 employees.

Employees who have been with the bank for shorter periods of time received proportionate amounts.

Some people are more critical of cars than others, and they are the ones we want specially to drive the solid new Plymouth.

This car is built a new solid way by Chrysler Corporation engineers. It is precisely put together and simply doesn't have many parts that work loose and need fixing in some cars. We'd like to answer some questions about this car now:

Q. What is this new way of building?

A. Chrysler Corporation's virtually trouble-free version of unit construction. Body and undersills are joined in a single unit of enormous strength, locked by close to 5400 welds. In Dura-Quiet Unibody, there is no frame and no conventional body bolts, struts, braces, etc., to loosen and rattle.

Q. What about power and performance?

A. There's the new 30-D Economy Six, a new "inclined" six that delivers outstanding economy in normal driving. The standard V-8 is the Fury V-800 which three times in a row topped its class in the Mobilgas Economy Run. Or you may choose the extra-cost SonoRamic Commando V-8.

If you ask us, this is the best built, best performing low-price car of all. Give it a real try soon, won't you?
